AN UNFIT CANDIDATE.

Captain George W. Skinner, who is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Eighteenth District, as well as the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in Fulton, has a record which must make it impossible for any honest man in the district to cast a vote for him. It is a record which no self-respecting Democrat can support.

In 1876, when the lower house of the Legislature was afflicted with a Democratic majority, Captain Skinner was Journal Clerk of that body. That was a notable session, at which a great scandal was created aboat theSusquehanna boom bill. Representative Petroff, of this city, who was subsequently expelled from the House, told before an investigating committee how Captain Skinner had corruptly solicited support for the boom bill. The story is of record in the legislative documents of that year.

The story, as told by Petroff under oath, was that Skinner had exhibited to him a certificate of deposit for $7,500 given him by parties interested in the boom bill, and Skinner told Petroft this money was to secure fourteen members at $500 each, the extra $500 to be for Skinner. He also told Petroff that the boom men had given him $300 without his asking for it, which was certainly very generous in them, and particularly so as they had clearly overrated Skinner's value.

The result of the exposure, as is very well known, was the expulsion of Petroff from his seat as a member of the House, and Skinner was compelled to resign his place as Journal Clerk. These facts did not keep Skinner down, however. He was an office holder under the immaculate administration of Grover Cleveland, and the Democrats of Fulton county, in utter disregard of good morals and integrity in public office, have since elected him to the Legislature. His record has not interfered with his enjoyment of party honors and rewards.

Now he has been made the candidate for Congress in a district where the people are intelligent and certainly have some regard for character and decency in public life. His nomination is as much an insult to the honest Democrats, of the district as to any others. No man can vote for him without accepting the grave responsibility which such an act imposes. Captain Skinner is morally unfit to hold any public office. As between him and Congressman Atkinson there is but one choice for an honest voter.

Marriage Licenses.

Following is the list of marriage libenses issued during the past week:

Oscar G. DeHass and Minearma C. Bailer, both of Liberty township, Pa.

Edward E. Miller, of Snow Shoe, and Frances E. Shope, of Milesburg, Pa.

Herman W. Baird, of Penna. Furnace and Lucy Alice Hoy, of Lemont, Pa.

Jacob W. Bair, of Spring Mills, Pa., and Mary C. Rishel, of Madisonburg, Pa.

George E. Glenn, of Bellefonte, and Cora M. Hetzel, of Aaronsburg, Pa.

William Klinefelter, of Tusseyville, and Sarah Jane Confer, of Spring Mills, Pa.

George Beatriski and Mary Sunchock both of Philipsburg, Pa.

The shade trees in this city are now attired in full autumn dress, and its variegated tints are both wondrous and beautiful.

FIGHT TO THE FINISH.

From the Meadville Tribune-Republican.

The greatest political campaign that ever attracted the eyes of our whole nation to any single one of its chain of proud states is within less than two weeks of its close. Pennsylvania is the battle-ground, and not only the whole of free America, but England as well is watching with bated breath for the final result. The Democratic party, driven to desperation by the aggressive and progressive policy of the Republican party, seeing in the policy of the party in power increased prosperity through new and broader fields of industry, and the accompanying blessing of a contented people—signs which mean the everlasting tomb for Democratic theories, are fighting as they never fought before. Their forces are marshalled for the death struggle, and from their breastworks of calumny and false principles all their engines of political warfare are belching forth slander and vituperation as never before disgraced the pages of political history in this country.

Evading the real issues of the day, they resort to a campaign of personalities; and why? Because if based on these issues, dear to the heart of the people, their cause is lost from the start, and they are sharp enough to know it. In the mad rush to steal a Republican state they would stop at nothing. An honest man's character, a hundred, aye, ten thousand of them would be dragged in the filth as though they were but simple weeds by the wayside. The history of the Republican party is the crown of our Nation's glory; it is a fortress invulnerable to Democratic assaults and a campaign based on such issues should be their funeral in Pennsylvania. The brilliant accomplishments of the Republican party, from its inception to the present day, surpass anything in history, and to-day the grandest and richest Nation on the face of God's green earth owes its prosperity to that party. Who will deny this? Who can deny it? It is the party to which the great industries of our country and their millions of toilers owe their prosperity under a protective policy; the party who, through their great leader, Abraham Lincoln, gave freedom to 4,000,000 of bondsmen and made them citizens; the party who met the emergencies of the greatest civil war the world ever knew; the party who made all American money one value, and whose watchword is equal protection to all citizens, be it at the home, the workshop, in the field or at the ballot box.

As concerns the personal attacks on the present candidates of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, they fall harmless at the feet of the men toward whom they are aimed. Our candidates need no certificate of character in Pennsylvania; they have won that in their associations with their fellow-men. In convention at Harrisburg, where were met the representatives of every city and county in this great commonwealth, our nominations were made; and when that great assemblage sprung almost as one man to its feet and made the vast building tremble with its shouts of approval, a shout which was taken up by the thousands who thronged the streets anxiously waiting the result, Crawford county's brilliant young statesman, Geo. Wallace Delamater, received a tribute which no unfriendly tongue or pen can belittle or besmirch.

In all the long history of years which have marked the progress of our great state, the second in the Union, no such honor has ever come to Crawford county before; and long years will probably pass ere another such distinction will be ours. And not for Crawford alone, but for the whole Northwest, is this the first time for such an honor. By this nomination the eyes of the whole state are drawn toward us, as are also the bitterest attacks of the common foe—the Democratic party. Is this not r[illegible]n enough why the loyal men of Cra[illegible]d should work as they never work[illegible] before? Aye, truly it is, and the work [illegible] being well done. Earnest men are in t[illegible] fight, and there'll be no rest till victory is won. Every true Republican, every man who believes in the principles of protection, who loves prosperity and a happy home should be in this fight with the determination to carve out of it the grandest victory the Republican party ever knew. It is a battle for principle, and every Republican has a duty to perform which should not be neglected. Every man should be at his post, firm and earnest, resolved to win a victory which will be an honor to the county most honored in our state. Let no man imagine his help is not needed; the greater the victory the greater the glory, and both are certain to follow a united and earnest fight to the finish.

Democratic Tom-Toms.

There is evidently a concerted effort being made by the Democratic stump speakers and newspapers to beat all their tom-toms in these last days of the campaign, so as to try and confine the mind of the people and mislead some of them into voting the Democratic ticket. They agree that voters are only a lot of sheep who can be frightened into taking any course, provided the noise made in the opposite direction is loud enough to scare them. So the Democratic orators are going around the country braying at the top of their voices, and the Democratic newspapers are thumping all the old tin pans and oyster cans within reach with a vigor that makes the perspiration trickle down their foreheads.

The first tom-tom that is being drummed upon is the alleged rise in prices caused by the McKinley tariff bill. The Democrats have industriously worked this day after day, paying no attention to the prompt refutation of their false statements and their utter ignorance of the whole tariff business. They use columns of space in screaming over the woes of the workingman, and the increased price he must pay for his kid gloves and Axminster carpets. If they can only beat this tom-tom loud enough they expect to be able at least to confuse the judgment of the workingman until the day after election.

Another tom-tom that is being industriously beaten is the alleged fraud in the census. Local pride they hope will aid them in this matter and increase the dissatisfaction caused by too inflated hopes. The Tammany recount of New York city was a shrewd bid for popularity in this direction. The same trick is being worked elsewhere, and now, to cap all, the Democratic papers are shouting that a demand will be made for an entire recount of the whole country, on the ground that there has been a systematic attempt to under-estimate the population of Democratic States, and that nearly all of them are from Republican States. But it is a good enough tom-tom until after election, and by thumping it vigorously the Democrats hope to get a few votes out of it.

A third tom-tom that every Democratic editor and speaker in the land is energetically pounding with his little rattan is the corruption tom-tom. This is a strange cry for the Democratic party to raise, with a notorious railroad speculator, who bought a Senatorship for himself and tried to buy a Presidency in 1888, at the head of its National Committee. Like the thief who joined in the cry of "Stop thief," the Democratic speakers and newspapers hope, by working this tom-tom, they can conceal their own corrupt record and blunt the senses of people as to their own boodle practices.

These are the three tom-toms whose blare is heard whenever a Democratic speaker mounts the stump and wherever a Democratic paper circulates. It is the same old method of campaigning that the Democrats have tried and failed with before. It is based on the belief that the American people are ready to be gulled and that the bigger the falsehood is the quicker it will be swallowed. We shall see.

The Campaign Ended.

Voters of Centre County, the campaign of 1890 has about drawn to a close. It has been a peculiar campaign but there is no reason why the voter should not now cast his ballot intelligibly. The line of battle between the two old parties has been so marked that the most ignorant could not fail to distinguish it. On the one side it has been a free and open discussion of the most vital questions of modern times. A plain statement of facts as they now exist and a correct showing of leading isues of the day. This by the party of the people, under the leadership of some of the best men that were ever made the standard bearers of any great political party.

On the other side the campaign has been one of general and personal abuse and villification; a complete ignoring of all the main questions at issue; and this by the party that has always been the opposite of every good done to our country, headed by men who have been once tried and found sadly lacking and they now again come before the people and ask their suffrage. This is not the party to vote for; It knows no betterment of the people; it has no conscientious principles of good government; it has no principles in its platform to relieve the yeopis of overtaxation; it has no temperance proclivities; in brief, it has nothing to commend it to the voter of Pennsylvania save a selfish and unfavorable record. Voters, are you going to cast your ballots for this party? Soldiers, are you going to cast your ballots for the man who would allow the old and poor soldier to be buried in a paupers grave? From the Deleware to the State of Ohio comes up in thundering tones no, we will not. This is the status of the State campaign.

In the county the democratic party workers and leaders have sought by every means possible to make the campaign now almost closed one of personal attack and lying argument. They have attacked and maligned almost every man on the Republican ticket. They have lied about the past administration of every republican official and, upon these grounds—their arguments—if you please—they come before the people and ask support for their candidates. Will the voters of Centre county exchange the reform administration of the last three years for the boodle and extravagant management of former democratic administration. The voters of Centre county are not such fools. The republican party has put up a ticket of good, honorable and competent men; all of whom would manage the affairs of the county in the interest of the people. The republican party has carried on an upright, honest campaign and now they come before the people and ask their votes open and fairly, believing that the affairs of the county will be better managed in the hands of republican officials than in the hands of a democrat. But the decision now rests with the voter, and we feel assured that when the votes are all in and counted on the morning of the 5th of November, the result will show that the people of Centre county are still alive and awake to their own best interests, They can prove this beyond a shadow of a doubt by voting the entire republiean ticket.

The Kindergarden.

Next Monday night "The Kindergarden" company will appear in the opera house. This is a large company, carrying its own band and orchestra of ten pieces. It is one of the funniest plays on the road. Did you ever laugh until you cried? did you ever have to cry to keep from laughing? If you didn't you will have to if you go to see the kindergarden" next Monday night. In fact it is so funny that you will die if you don't laugh. Be sure and go and see it.

Small Boy—I'm too sick to go to school to-day.

Mamma—Then lie down, and I'll send for a doctor.

Dr. Pellet?

No. He's a homeopath. I shall send for Dr. Castor, the allepath.

Never mind, mamma, I feel better where's my books?

—Last week 8520 tickets were sold in Williamsport for the Kittie Rhoades entertainments. Comparitively speaking, can't Bellefonte beat that?

At the Opera House.

The Kittie Rhoades company opened a weeks's engagement at the opera house Monday night in that highly entertaining comedy "The Planter's Wife." Miss Rhoades is a pleasing and perfect actress and on Monday night she won the confidence of the people of Bellefonte and we predict a large house during the entire week. The house last night was filled. Miss Rhoades is supported by a strong company, The music is very good. To-night the play will be "Jess the Romp." Secure your seats early as they are going fast.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Oct., 27, 1890.

I saw to-day what I most sincerely hope will never be seen again—an ex-President of the United States—Mr. Cleveland—making an argument before the U. S. Supreme Court, upon the bench of which sat two men—Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Lamar—who were appointed by him. Understand, I do not wish to even imply that the two Justices referred to knowingly allow the fact that they owed their places to Mr. Cleveland, as President, predjudice their minds in favor of the case represented by Mr Cleveland, the lawyer, but, there is something in the situation which jars discordantly upon ones ideas of the fitness of things. Mr. Cleveland never had a case before the Supreme Court before he was President, and never would have appeared in court but for the fact of his having been President, and the suspicion naturally arises that his client in employing him, hoped to gain some advantage through his prominence and his relation with the two men he had placed upon the bench. It may be unjust,—probably is,—but it will not down, and trust that no other ex-President, who has appointed part of its membership will ever again make an argument before the Supreme Court. It would not be a bad idea for Congress to pass a law on the subject, although it might be supposed that the natural judgment and good taste of our ex-President's should be sufficient. Mr. Cleveland is a member of a firm several members of which are far better advocates than he is. Why couldn't one of them have made this argument? Simply because it was the ex-President and not the lawyer that was wanted. Let us have no more of it, say I.

The Republican Congressional campaign committee is apparently confident of controlling the next House by a good working majority, notwithstanding democratic shot guns in the South and outrageous gerrymandering in the Northern States which accidentally have democratic legislatures. The committee very sensibly refuses to make public a list of the district it expects the republicans carry, because it has no desire to furnish the democrats with information

Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt in stating officially that all Federal office holders whose contributions for political purposes would be prosecuted, gave the Democrats an exalted opportunity to prove being compelled to contribute to the Republican campaign fund but they have not taken advantage of it, for the very good reason that there has been no violation of law, except in the immagination of excited and demoralized democrats, who seeing themselves beaten are trying to explain their defeat by yelling "boodle." A party which starts a campaign as the democrats did this one, with the avowed intention of taking by legal frauds, in the shape of legislative gerrymanders, 31 districts and by illegal frauds suppressed votes—39 more to which it is not justly entitled does not show up well as an accuser.

The President and his cabinet will take part in the unveiling of the statue to the brave men who lost their lives on the Jeannette Arctic expedition erected in the grounds of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, Thursday. The Statue was erected by act of Congress.

Superintendent Porter of the Census Bureau has returned. He says there will be no recount of the population of New York City. Secretary Noble is of the some opinion. They ought to know.

The attempt of the democrats to make a little late political capital by claiming that the McKinley tariff law was void because the clause relating to the reduction in the tobacco tax was not engrossed in the copy of the bill, which the President signed, fell very flat here. In the first place, Representative Bayne who was one of the conferees of the bill says the tobacco clause was intentionally left out, as it was not to go into effect until January 1, next; and in the next place its being left out could not possibly affect the rest of the bill. It is common for errors of omission to occur in engrossing long bills, and it excites no comment here. If the omission is important it is corrected by joint resolution of Congress, otherwise nothing is done. "Our friends, the enemy," will, have to try again.

Mutton suet, well rubbed in at night, drawing on a pair of white cotton gloves to sleep in and washed off the next morning with a few drops of ammonia in the water, is betetr than glycerine and rose water, both of which are, in result too drying for some hands.

GENERAL NOTES.

About 17,000 houses are added every year to London.

Sunday is now generally observed in Japan as a day of rest.

The English Channel was never crossed by a swimmer until the year 1875.

A self-made man and a self-made woman are two different kinds of creatures.

The product of an English cow in milk and butter has an average annual value of £11.

The receipts of the French Treasury are larger than those of any other civilized nation.

Dublin is better provided with open space than any other town in the United Kingdom.

For the first time in 12 years, a ship left the port of Montreal a few days ago for England.

The noise of the artillery at Waterloo was heard at Creil, 115 miles from the scene of the battle, and also at Dover.

In some foreign cities there are men hired to attract a crowd to their employers' windows by staring and gazing into them.

A law went into effect in Louisiana last Friday requiring the railroad companies to furnish separate cars for white and colored persons.

According to the scales used in the House of Representatives, 42,000 Nevada people weigh politically as much as 150,000 New York people.

The loveliest summer resort on earth is probably the plateau of Newera Ellia, the King's Summit," as the natives call it, in the highlands of Southern Ceylon

A single hair can support a weight of two ounces, and is so elastic that it may be stretched to one third of its entire length, and then regain its former size and condition.

It is said that in New York there are professional blackeye concealers, where those employed are fully occupied in painting black eyes with a mixture of white and red paints.

Across the water and probably here, there are men who undertake to make pretended wormholes in various objects of furniture to give them a due appearance of antiquity.

According to Captain Wissman, of the African exploring party, the paradise of birds seems to have been found on the shores of a lagoon communicating with the eastern extremity of the Albert Nyanza.

Hedgehogs are occasionally cannibalistic, the larger ones, when hard up for a dinner, chasing the smaller at a wonderful rate, and devouring them without sauce or mercy.

In Paris there are professional trunk packers who can be hired to pack a trunk artistically, folding expensive gowns and other garments in tissue paper, and stowing away delicate bric-a-brac in the safest way.

A Michigan man and his wife wanted to take a train for a small station, but found it did not stop there. The man wanted her to jump aboard as the cars went by, and when she doubted her ability he got mad and went it alone. He had a leg, an ear and three fingers cut off, and doesn't feel half as smart as he did.

A gargle for sore mouth and throat is to take four large spoonfuls of good cider vinegar, four of water, a teaspoonful of common salt, and a very small portion of red or black pepper; gargle every hour. It is worth more than all the chlorate of potash in the country and it cannot harm you.

Chinese gloss starch is made of two tablespoons of borax dissolved in one and one-half cups of cold water. Dip the thoroughly dry unstarched cuffs collars and bosoms of shirts in this, then roll them up tight and let them remain a few hours in a dry cloth, then rub off and iron.

The democrats concede the ability of all the candidates on the republican ticket but two and they have tried very hard to villify and malign them, but it has been no go. John A. Wolfe and D. B. Kunes have come through the fire unscathed and they, with the entire republican ticket, will be elected.

Powdered ammonia is considered excellent for cleaning silver.

Butter is tainted by any strong smelling odor. Therefore it should be kept by itself.

Have coffee pulverized. A third less will be required and the quality much improved.

To have honest government you must vote for every republican on the ticket.

WAR OF THE ELEMENTS

Many Fierce Storms Raged Which Did Considerable Damage.

A STEAMER'S CLOSE CALL.

The Furious Waves on Chesapeake Bay Shattered Her Side Works and Put the Passengers in a Panic. Damage at Many Points.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The storm which came down upon New York city at about half-past 10 Thursday morning continued with unabated fury until about the same hour Friday, when the wind blew a gale of forty miles an hour. The waters of the bay were driven up the North and East rivers and an extraordinarily high tide was the result. At the Battery the water was three feet higher than it has been in years. The cellars on West street as far up as Chambers street were flooded, and the waters were running over the bulkheads along the river front. The high wind has done a great deal of damage to the telegraph and telephone wires and to the shipping in the lower harbor.

On Staten Island the wires are so badly broken that no connection can at present be had with that locality. The cable to Sandy Hook and Fire Island is broken, so that reports of incoming vessels cannot be given until they arrive at Quarantine. The sea is very heavy outside, and at Manhattan Beach, Coney Island and all along the Staten Island shore great breakers thunder incessantly.

Several vessels dragged their anchors, but brought up before they got into shallow water. Two tugs which went down below Quarantine to bring up two oil tank steamers had to return without them, as the sea was running so high it was found impossible to get alongside in safety.

All the incoming steamers will probably be delayed by the gale.

A Steamer's Battle with the Waves.

NOLFOLK, Va., Oct. 25.—A terrific southeasterly gale of wind raged on Chesapeake bay. The wind blew at the rate of sixty miles an hour, lashing the seas into mountainous waves, which were so high that at Old Point they completely washed across the new iron pier completed by the government last spring. Passengers on the steamer Virginia, which was coming down the bay when she was struck by the storm, were badly frightened. The waves broke over the vessel's deck, flooding her down stairs saloons and wrecked the pantry.

Coming across the Horseshoe, and just before reaching Old Point, a tremendous wave struck the boat, crushing her port wheel house and shattering the joiner work on the port side. All of the passengers had on life preservers, and frantic men and women begged Capt. Bohannon to beach the steamer. Finally all were landed in safety.

Bath Beach Flooded.

BATH BEACH, L. I., Oct. 25.—One of the heaviest seas experienced in years swept the coast here Thursday night and Friday morning. The sea is running very high in Gravesend bay, and the waves break on the shore at Bensonhurst, Bath Beach and Fort Hamilton far above the usual high water mark. The bulkheads in front of a number of hotels have been badly damaged and several trees torn up and swept away. Many bathing houses have been carried away.

The shore road leading from Bath Beach to Fort Hamilton is submerged almost the entire length. A number of large trees in Bath Beach and New Utrecht have been blown down by the gale, and the streets in the villages of Gravesend and Unionville are flooded.

A Hurricane at Asbury Park.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Oct. 25.—The hurricane began blowing at a furious rate here Thursday, and it has kept up with increasing velocity ever since. For twenty-four hours a score of sailing vessels have been battling with the waves and wind a few miles off shore. The life saving crews are having a hard time of it. The greatest apprehension is felt for the safety of several schooners that can be plainly seen trying to get out to sea, and through the marine glasses their crews can be discerned working on the decks. Business is practically suspended here.

Ruin Wrought by Floods.

CITY OF MEXICO, via GALVESTON, Oct. 25.—Terrible rain storms have prevailed in Colima ever since Oct. 19. Many small towns are flooded, and all travel and telegraphic communication have been interrupted in that region since Tuesday. The rains as yet show no sign of abatement. Rains are also reported throughout the state of Vera Cruz. Governor Gomez, of the state of Colima, is attending personally to the work of remedying the ruin caused by floods.

Long Branch Inundated.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Oct. 25.—This resort is inundated in many places, and the terrific storm from the northeast that is raging bids fair to cause a vast amount of damage. The big cut along Ocean avenue is again dug into by the mountainous breakers, and all the nets of the fishermen between here and Seabright have been torn away. In several instances the fishermen's boats have been capsized and the men narrowly escaped drowning.

A House Blown Down.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 25.—Shortly before 10 o'clock Friday forenoon during the prevalance of the storm a four story brick building in course of construction at the corner of Halsey street and Patchen avenue was blown down and entirely demolished. There was no one in the house at the time. John Lindsay had his leg broken. The house is owned by J. McDignes. Damage $3.000

Mangled on the Rails.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Daniel Carroll, aged 23, of Skaneateles Junction, was found dead on the New York Central tracks near his home. His body was badly mangled. It is thought he was killed by a freight train while intoxicated.

To Feed the Hungry.

BUFFALO, Oct. 25.—A citizens' mass meeting was held here to raise money for the aid of the famine sufferers of Ireland. Among the speakers were Bishop Ryan, Congressman Farquhar and Mayor Bishop. Over $5,300 was subscribed.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

It Finishes Its Session After Hearing Dr. Magee's Caustic Letter.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The Presbyterian synod finished its labors at Friday morning's session. The most important business was the reading of the pastoral letter of Dr. Irving Magee, of Rondout. It strongly recommended no more organizations, neither associations, societies, nor leagues. A covert allusion to the elaborate machinery of churches and societies was made, and suggestions for more honest Presbyterianism in the pulpit. The old line words sin, conviction, repentance, faith, life, death, heaven, hell, must find new speech so as not to offend the æsthetic ears of our fashionable congregations.

The great overmastering purpose of religion is worship. The pulpit is not a lyceum desk or a showman's stage. The catechism has fallen into disuse. A certain liberality is creeping into the church, which bodes to prove dangerous and lead to indifference. Ministers were warned not to preach mere ethical sermons, but the pure vibrant Pauline doctrine of justification.

Charles S. Robinson, Samuel M. Hamilton and William A. Wheeler, all of New York, were elected trustees of the synod.

The remainder of the session was passed in routine work. After adjournment the delegates took a special train to Niagara Falls, where they passed the day.

THE SEED DISTRIBUTION.

The Department of Agriculture Will Send Out Six Million Packages.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The season for the distribution of seeds to the constituents of senators and representatives is about to begin, and it is estimated by the department of agriculture, which performs this work, that something like 6,000,000 packages of seeds will be sent out.

Last season 445,821 packages of seeds were sent out, an increase of 7,130 over the preceding year. The department has a special agent, R. S. Whittleton, traveling about the country buying fine seeds. All seeds are scientifically treated before they are paid for, and unless 75 per cent. of them germinate when tested they are sent back.

President Harrison's Vote.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—President Harrison has not yet decided whether he will go to Indiana to vote or not. He is desirous of going, but the pressure of business at the executive mansion just now is so great that he may be prevented from doing so. Besides, the president has several important engagements which will require his attention. His friends in Indiana believe that the presence of the president on election day will be worth many votes to the party, but his visit will depend altogether upon his ability to arrange his official duties in such manner as will enable him to go without neglecting public business.

Peters Will Be a Millionaire Still.

MANISTEE, Mich., Oct. 25.—The report sent to Dun's Commercial agency distinctly states the direct liabilities of R. G. Peters as being between $750,000 and $800,000, and the indirect about the same amount, bringing the indebtedness to $1,600,000. The assets are over $5,000,000, and will leave Mr. Peters a millionaire after the business is settled. It also states that Mr. Peters made the assignment on the advice of friends in order to clear himself from several disastrous concerns which were a burden to him, among which was a Chicago concern, which has sunk $400,000 for him within two years.

Satisfied It Was Not an Accident.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Norman Wolcott, and not O. Wilkert, is the name of the aged man who was beaten and robbed and then placed on the Santa Fe tracks at Twelfth street Tuesday night. The police have at last determined that his death was not due to an accident, and are hard at work on the case. The chief of police received a dispatch yesterday from Trenton Falls, N. Y., asking for a description of the dead man. It was sent, and a second dispatch came: "It is the body of my brother, Norman Wolcott. Hold body. I will reach Chicago to-morrow."

The Jury Couldn't Agree.

DETROIT, Oct. 25.—The case of Alderman Tierney, who was indicted for bribery in connection with the building of sewers in this city, and the first of the several aldermen indicted to be brought to trial, was given to the jury after a long and tedious trial of about ten days. The jury was out all day, and then announced that it could not agree.

The Fireman Instantly Killed.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 25.—The passenger train on the Utah and Northern road collided with a switch engine about thirteen miles south of this city. John B. Mitchell, fireman of the passenger engine, was killed instantly. The train was crowded with passengers, who were thrown off their feet and bruised, but none received serious injuries.

A Fatal Smashup.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25.—A collision took place between two freight trains on the Union Pacific railroad at Fairview, fourteen miles from this city. Engineer Jack O'Brien was instantly killed and Fireman William Heinsworth's right shoulder was crushed. Both engines and three box cars were badly wrecked.

A Bottle of Whisky on His Person.

EXETER, N. H., Oct. 25.—Last evening a man, presumably Clarence E. Locke, of Seabrook, drove into Fresh river, and with his horse was drowned. No one witnessed the accident, but his cries for help were heard. His body was recovered, and a bottle of whisky found on his person indicates the cause of the accident.

Murdered and Mangled by Indians.

SILVER CITY, N. M., Oct. 25.—Two Mexican sheep herders have been murdered and their bodies horribly mangled by Indians at a point about twenty miles from here. The names of the murdered men have not been ascertained. A posse of deputy sheriffs is in pursuit of the renegade murderers.

Horseman Dwyer Discharged.

RAHWAY, N. J., Oct. 25.—Michael Dwyer, the noted horseman, appeared before Justice Frazer on Friday morning to answer to a charge of gambling. Justice Frazer heard the evidence and discharged him, because the warrant had not been returned or the bond forwarded from Jersey City, where the arrest was made. Mr. Dwyer was accompanied by Robert Pinkerton, ex-Surrogate Gerber and Capt. Brey.

A Fierce Gale at Cape Cod.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Oct. 25.—A fierce gale from the northeast struck Cape Cod Friday morning. A three masted schooner that had evidently lost her bearings was seen off Sandwich Thursday, but could not be seen Friday morning.

THE COLORED LAD WINS.

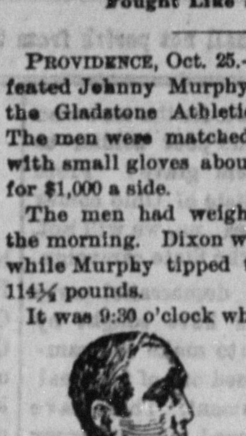
George Dixon Defeats Johnny Murphy in Forty Rounds.

IT WAS A VICIOUS BATTLE.

Murphy's Thumb Was Broken in the First Round, but He Stood Up and Took His Medicine Gamely—Dixon Fought Like a Demon.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 25.—George Dixon defeated Johnny Murphy in forty rounds at the Gladstone Athletic club, Providence. The men were matched to fight to a finish with small gloves about three months ago for $1,000 a side.

The men had weighed in at Boston in the morning. Dixon was just 114 pounds, while Murphy tipped the beam a plump 114½ pounds.



DIXON.

It was 9:30 o'clock when the gong struck the signal for hostilities to commence. Both men sparred cautiously for several seconds. Dixon feinted with his right and let go his left, landing lightly on Murphy's jaw. Murphy then led with his right, but fell short, and received a stinging left hand blow on the ribs, which drew blood. Some vicious short arm fighting was done.

Round 2—Murphy appeared to realize that he had no mean antagonist in the long armed mulatto, and sparred warily. Dixon's left shot out and landed on Murphy's wind. The latter jumped back a moment later to escape a left hand swing, and ran away with his back toward Dixon. Dixon swung his right and caught Murphy on the ear just as he turned round.

Round 3—Dixon fought throughout this round with his old time cyclonic fury. He landed right and left on Murphy's jaw, ear and nose and fought viciously at short range during the clinches which Murphy was forced to make to escape punishment.

Round 4—Dixon, contrary to general expectation, did not force the fighting during this round. He seemed perfectly content to get in a swinging half upper cut on Murphy's wind. Murphy made several leads, but either fell short or landed so lightly as to cause the colored boy to smile. Dixon worked on his opponent's wind and landed repeatedly, but Murphy did not appear to be at all worried.

Murphy's Friends Howl.

Round 5—Murphy made his friends howl with glee by getting in a good right hander on Dixon's mouth. The darky countered lightly on his neck. A little sparring and the men came together with a will, and some good in-fighting was the result.

Round 6—Dixon forced matters in this round. He got home with his right on Murphy's forehead and fairly staggered the white boy with a terrific left hand swing on the ear. Murphy was compelled to run from Dixon's rushes.

Round 7—This was a hotly contested round throughout. Dixon fought his man all over the ring, landing when and how he pleased on the neck and wind. Murphy was a trifle groggy at the call of time.

Rounds 8 to 12—Dixon let up on his man, and fought as if he were afraid of him throughout these rounds.

Rounds 13 to 16—Dixon used his left occasionally on Murphy's wind, and with the exception of a little short arm fighting during a clinch in the sixteenth round no material damage was done.

Round 17—Murphy seemed to have gained confidence in the preceding rounds, and went in to force matters. Dixon led and landed his left on Murphy's ribs, then swung his right, which fell short. Murphy rushed in on him and landed right and left in the region of Dixon's heart. Dixon clinched, and the men fought at short arm quarters till the gong struck.

Rounds 18 to 25—The fighting during these rounds was entirely one-sided. Dixon did nearly all the leading and was punishing his antagonist slowly but surely. Murphy's face began to wear a troubled expression.

Rounds 26 to 36—Dixon fought cautiously throughout these rounds and was slowly but surely wearing his man out. Murphy had begun to show signs of punishment. His ribs were cut and swollen, he had several large bumps and contusions on his forehead and around his eyes. He was bleeding from the ears also, and he was badly winded. Dixon, on the contrary, showed scarcely any signs of punishment.

Fought Like a Fiend.

Round 37—Dixon got the signal during this round from his second to go in and finish his man. He fought with the fury of a fiend and hammered poor Murphy all over the ring. At the call of time Murphy's hands were down and his head was dropping.

Rounds 38 and 39 were marked by terrific fighting on the part of Dixon. Murphy was beaten to his knees once, and then forced over the ring and knocked down in his own corner with a straight right hander on the jaw. Murphy was just able to totter to his feet before the necessary ten seconds had elapsed. Dixon rushed at him. Murphy clinched and clung helplessly to the colored boy till the gong struck.

Round 40—Murphy gamely staggered into the ring to be knocked out rather than quit. Murphy was bleeding from the nose and mouth, and a stream of blood ran down his body from his ear. Dixon rushed at him and landed right and left on his defenseless neck. Murphy was too weak to guard himself and again clung to Dixon. The round had lasted nearly two minutes when Murphy's seconds, seeing that it was useless to prolong the fight, as their man had no possible chance, threw up the sponge.

Dixon was loudly cheered and borne in triumph on the shoulders of his backers from the room. Murphy's gameness in sticking to his task and taking such a frightful amount of punishment was loudly cheered. In fact, the white boy's pluck came in for as much applause as did Dixon's victory. Murphy's thumb was broken in the first round.

Smuggled Diamonds Seized.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—The custom house officers yesterday seized diamonds, rubies and other jewels valued at $5,000, which they asserted had been smuggled in by two merchants from Ceylon—P. A. de Silva and W. A. Amarasasingha—on the steamer Gaelic.

THE CONSPIRACY CASES.

The Crown Changes Its Base to Tighten Its Grip.

ASKED BALFOUR'S ARREST.

Father Humphreys, One of the Defendants, Demanded a Summons for Ireland's Chief Secretary—The Demand Was Promptly Refused.

TIPPERARY, Oct. 25.—The court Friday ordered summons served upon Messrs. Harrison, O'Brien, Dalton and others identified with the recent troubles with the police. As the matter now stands the defendants are relegated to the assizes for trial after a preliminary hearing has been had before an ordinary court of petty sessions. The crown's action has renewed the excitement which existed among the people of Tipperary during the earlier days of the conspiracy case. The feeling is that the government by transferring its prosecution of the prisoners hopes to strengthen a hold upon them which it felt to be daily becoming weaker.

Father Humphreys, one of the defendants in the conspiracy case and a well known and popular priest, who was sentenced by the magistrates to pay a fine of £20 or be imprisoned for six months on a charge of having assaulted a policeman's wife, through counsel, asked that a summons be issued for the arrest of Mr. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland. In the argument made by Father Humphreys' counsel in support of the demand for the summons it was stated that it was expected to show that the arrest of Father Humphreys was made on a charge trumped up by the police inspired by Mr. Balfour. The magistrates promptly refused to issue the summons.

The Serpent Scene Disgusting.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The correspondent of The Times at Paris adversely criticises the departure from history in the new play of "Cleopatra," written for Sarah Bernhardt by Sardou, and which was last night performed for the first time. He says: "The death of Cleopatra is not dramatic. The serpent scene is disgusting rather than striking. The prolonged agony causes no anguish and the wind up is not thrilling. Still, whenever the uneven play gives chances, she has fine passages and brilliant flashes." The Standard thinks that Cleopatra is not so fine a role as is La Tosca or Theodora, but it considers the rendition of their parts by Bernhardt and Garnier as remarkable.

Duffy's Bad Break.

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—In a long letter to Archbishop Croke Sir Charles Gavan Duffy says that while Mr. Balfour's land purchase bill is a measure proposed by a detested government it should, in his opinion, be accepted on its merits. A parliament sitting in Dublin would, he adds, welcome a similar bill with an outburst of enthusiasm. The Freeman's Journal, in an editorial which evidences considerable irritation at the suggestion, says that the letter shows that the writer is ignorant of the sentiments of his countrymen.

Another Vitu Massacre Imminent.

ZANZIBAR, Oct. 25.—The sultan of Vitu has refused to submit to British authority or to make reparation for the late massacre. Instead of that, the sultan is perfecting his preparations for renewing hostilities. He is being joined by hundreds of natives from neighboring tribes and a contest is unavoidable. Another massacre may result.

An Elevated Road for Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—At a special meeting of the city council the Lake street elevated ordinance was finally adopted. The ordinance as passed gives the company the right to construct a double track from Fifth avenue to the city limits. It also provides for a grade scale of payments to the city for the franchise, beginning at $1,000 per mile for the first five years, $1,500 for the second five years, $2,000 for the following ten years and $2,500 per mile during the existence of the ordinance.

Madman Dougherty Indicted.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—James Dougherty, the alleged lunatic who killed Dr. Lloyd at the Flatbush insane asylum, has been indicted by the grand jury for murder in the first degree. The question of his sanity has not yet been legally determined. He was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

BRIEF MENTION.

In answer to the claims of New York importers that the McKinley tariff bill is invalid because of the omission of a section from the enrolled bill signed by the president, it is pointed out that such errors are common, and that they have never been held to nullify the legislation in which they have occurred. Secretary Windom says that he shall administer the law as he finds it.

The committee of safety, appointed by the mayor of New Orleans to discover if possible the assassins of Chief of Police Hennessey, published an address to the Italians of the city, in which it announces the intention to clear out the Mafia, "peaceably and lawfully if we can, violently and summarily if we must."

A statue of ex-President Arthur, of heroic size, representing him addressing his cabinet, will be erected in New York by his friends.

A great meteor passed over the towns of Claremont, Bradford and Hillsboro Bridge, N. H., and burst with a stupendous report.

Thousands of persons are afflicted by smallpox in Madrid.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, was thrown from his buggy near his home at Versailles, and had his collar bone broken, shoulder crushed and was otherwise severely injured.

Senators Gaumer and Richards, of the Ohio legislature, are said to have been caught changing the records of the house by altering the Soncrant bill.

The "Diaries and Letters of Maj. Barttelot," the murdered commander of Stanley's rear guard in Africa, were published in London by the dead man's brother. They make charges of malignity, ingratitude, misrepresentation and desertion against Stanley.

Chloroformed the Family.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Oct. 25.—A gang of expert burglars raided this city last night. At one of the numerous houses broken into the thieves chloroformed the entire family, and secured money and jewelry worth several hundred dollars.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Gen. Macauley Tells Some Interesting Facts About the Great Work.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Gen. Daniel Macauley, of Indianapolis, who is largely interested in the Nicaragua canal, has just returned to Washington from Nicaragua, and reports matters progressing satisfactorily. Already there has been expended on the construction of the canal $3,500,000, and much substantial work has been done. Gen. Macauley says:

"On the east coast there is to be an excavation to the depth of 150 to 200 feet through solid rock for a distance of two and a half miles. This excavation alone will cost $10,000,000 or $15,000,000, but when it is once begun it is merely a matter of so much dynamite and so many laborers. On the west coast the rock to be removed is not so great in quantity, and in both cases the debris is to be utilized in the construction of dams, ocean piers and canal locks, so that it is valuable material and not waste stuff which we excavate. Labor is reported scarce, most of it coming from the United States. At present a force of 3,000 men is at work."

Gen. Macauley says that the preparatory work is nearly finished and the actual excavation will soon commence. He thinks that in five or six years steamers will be passing through the canal.

The Editor Threatened to Shoot.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Frank Hume, a wholesale grocer of this city, is an independent candidate for congress from the Eighth district of Virginia, and a conference of Republicans was held at Alexandria to discuss the advisability of nominating a candidate to run against Mr. Hume and Gen. Lee, the Democratic candidate. While cigars were being handed around at the meeting the remark was made that they were Hume cigars. J. H. Green ordered the box to be taken away, but Editor Whiting, of The Alexandria Progress, a warm Hume organ, objected, and a struggle for the possession of the box ensued between Whiting and N. C. Bond, who shouted that the introduction of Hume cigars was an insult to the conference. In the struggle the box was broken and the cigars scattered over the floor. Whiting then drew a revolver and threatened to use it on Bond. The other delegates interfered and the conference proceeded harmoniously.

For the World's Fair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The committee on art, of the World's fair, met at the Gilsey house Friday forenoon. Commissioners Breslin, Palmer and Elsworth were appointed a sub-committee to confer with the director general to formulate rules and regulations. A resolution was passed protesting against the grouping of art, music and the drama under one bureau. The subcommittee was instructed to confer with the artists and art collectors of the country, and report at the next meeting of the joint committee to be held in Chicago on Nov. 18. It was reported that Mr. Huntington, the president of the National Academy of Design, and Mr. Ward, the sculptor, had interested themselves in the work of the committee, which had sent out a circular asking for the co-operation and assistance of artists and art collectors.

A Duel with Crowbars.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Iron crowbars were the weapons used in a duel fought Friday forenoon between Joseph Wood, 35 years old, of 335 East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and Carl Burg, 46 years old, of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Second avenue. The battle was fierce and lasted some time. It was ended only when both men sank to the ground, each with a fractured skull. Then the bystanders, who during the fight had been compelled to keep aloof from the fighters by the promiscuous swinging of the crowbars, rushed to assist the fallen duelists. Ambulances were summoned and the two senseless men were taken to the Harlem hospital. The fight took place in a blacksmith shop at 1889 Park avenue. The cause of the duel is unknown.

Pullman Passengers Robbed.

SOCORRO, N. M., Oct. 25.—As the south bound train on the Santa Fe pulled out of Socorro three men were seen to step on board. After the train had passed San Antonio these strangers entered the Pullman sleeper and locked the doors, then drew their guns on the porter and conductor and relieved them of their surplus cash. Then they introduced themselves to the passengers, going through most of them and making quite a haul. They jumped from the train on the Basque de Apache grant, taking to the hills. It is estimated that they got $1,500. The officers of the road have offered a reward of $1,000 for their arrest. Parties of deputies have started in different directions, and it is thought that it will be impossible for them to escape.

Col. Pattee Dead.

CEDAR FALLS, Ia., Oct. 25.—Col. William Pattee, of Janesville, died in this city. He was the Democratic auditor of the state under Governor Hempstead.

Frozen to Death in a Blizzard.

RATON, N. M., Oct. 25.—William Nich and his 16-year-old daughter were going from Folsom to the ranch. The girl was driving a team ahead while her father came behind with another. They were overtaken by a blizzard when about half way home. The father reached home in safety, and was horrified to find that his daughter had not yet arrived. She had lost her way in the blinding storm. The blizzard continued throughout the night, so little could be done in searching for the lost child. In the morning she was found frozen to death. She had managed to unhitch her horses and turn them loose before she became exhausted.

A Valuable Stallion Killed.

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 25.—The stallion Superior, owned by Dubois Bros., horse breeders, of Pueblo, Colo., was accidentally killed here. He was being loaded on a car for transportation to Denver, and while the horse was walking up the platform the train started, owing to a confusion of signals. The horse was thrown under the wheels and mangled. He was 4 years old, and had a record of 2:15.

Blaine Off to McKinley's District.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Secretary Blaine, accompanied by his wife, his daughter Harriet and his son James G. Blaine, Jr., left Washington at 10:50 Friday morning over the Pennsylvania road, by limited express, for Ohio, where he will make several speeches in behalf of Congressman McKinley.

Preparing for That Recount.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The board of estimate and apportionment passed a resolution appropriating $5,000 as a preliminary to the taking of a new official census in case the national authorities refuse to give the city a recount.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Addresses by Hon. John M. Broomall, John W. Frazier and Others.

A big Republican meeting was held in the old borough of Darby last night, at which the principal speaker was John W. Frazier, whose telling hits made a good impression. In speaking of the conduct of the Democratic campaign, Mr. Faazier said; "From the start the Democrats have kept up a continued harangue of abuse, slander and vilification of the Republican party and its leaders—not so much abuse of the Republican candidates as of Senator Quay, who is not now, nor for some years to come, a candidate for office.

"The Democratic press and orators unite in alleging that the public funds were illegally taken from the treasury during Col. Quay's term as Treasurer, but while making that the burthen of complaint, they carefully conceal the fact that Col. Quay was State Treasurer during a part of Mr. Pattison's administration as Governor, and if stealing the public money was taking place, as alleged, it was Governor Pattison's duty to have it investigated and exposed, which he would only have been too glad to have done, as a party measure, had there been anything wrong. Did Gov Pattison make any such investigation? Did he attempt to do so? He did not. Then let me ask: Was he faithful to the oath of office he took to protect the State from any wrong whatever?

"Gentlemen, these writers and orators, from Mr. Pattison down to the lowest of them, neglect to tell you that at the expiration of his term as State Treasurer the accounts of Col. Quay were carefully audited and found correct, and that no Democratic member of the Senate or House questioned that official audit.

"These Democratic writers and speakers are most careful not to disclose the fact that nine Democratic State Treasurers are doing penal servitude in State prison to-day for stealing public funds in their custody and control, and that the Democratic Treasurer of the Democratic House of Congress is a fugitive from justice with $200,000 of stolen public funds in his possession.

"This, of course, is not the issue o this campaign, but as the Democrats are trying to evade the living, vital issues of to-day by injecting the management of the treasury under its Treasurer, who has been out of office several years, the facts are given simply to show that there are Pharisees of the worst type even in our day and generation.

"The Democratic party being wholly devoid of a single good principle their only stock in trade is abuse and vilification of Republicans. During the war they maligned Abraham Lincoln, the purest and best and most lovable of men with such malevolence that a Democratic enthusiast believing it his duty to kill him whom the Democratic press and orators daily denounced as the Tyrant Lincoln shot him to death. The abuse heaped upon Grant was equally as brutal, and who will deny that the lamented Garfield's tragic death was due to the Democratic slander and vilification that was so relentlessly and unjustly heaped upon him?

"Had it not been for that Democratic villification of Lincoln and Garfield—just such as characterizes the Democracy of to-day—Lincoln would have lived to witness the full fruition of his hopes and prayers—the rebellion ended, the Union re-established, and the emancipation of every slave held in bondage; and the great Garfield, the soldier and statesman, would to-day be living among us as the most honored leader of the Republican party battling for the success of Delamater and Republican principles, and fighting to overthrow Pattison and Democracy, just as he fought to suppress secession and rebellion during the darkest period in our Nation's history. Every Lincoln Republican in this State, every Garfield Republican in Pennsylvania, ought to rise up in the majesty of his manhood and condemn to every overwhelming defeat these traducers of the living, these slanderers of the dead."

Engineer Blair Hurt.

W. H. Blair, an engineer on the Bald Eagle Valley road, in getting off the train at Snow Shoe Intersection yesterday, had a severe fall and was badly hurt. He was brought to his home in this city on the 5 o'clock train yesterday evening on a stretcher, and was supposed to be badly hurt, but a thorough examination since gives the assurance that there is no internal injury Mr. Blair lives on Fairview street, and is getting along all right.—L. H. Democrat.

Forced to Leave Home.

Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call at their druggist's for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. THAT TUNNEL HORROR.

Stories of the Terrible Disaster Told by Eye Witnesses.

A HERO'S WORK OF RESCUE.

Messenger Brennan at the Risk of His Own Life Rescues a Brother Official. Postal Clerk Cayle's Wonderful Escape—Dead in the Debris.

CINCINNATI, Oct 24.—The first train on the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railway that brought eye witnesses of the scene of the train collision of Wednesday in a tunnel, arrived here and brought two of the victims home mangled, but still alive. They were J. P. Cayle, the postal clerk, and George Long, the baggage master, both of the passenger train. Cayle's injuries are not very serious. Long's injuries are cuts, bruises and burns about the head, arms and legs, and there are fears of internal injuries in his case. Cayle was taken to his home in Walnut hills and Long was removed to the hospital.

One of the stories told about the wreck is as follows: Express Messenger Brenner, who was until recently a station agent of the railroad at Somerset, Ky., heard the cries of George Long in the baggage car. Seizing an ax, he cut a hole in the side of the car and drew him out. In the express compartment of the same car the voice of F. P. Ruffner, the messenger of the United States Express company, was heard. Scorched by the approaching flames, Brenner began to cut a hole in the side of the car.

A Heroic Rescue.

As he cut away with his ax his clothing was singed by the fire, the hot air consuming his strength and his blows, and Ruffner shouted to him: "Go away; save yourself while you can. I am Ed. P. Ruffner, of Cincinnati. My home is 410 West Fourth street. Go and tell my family good-by. Tell them you did all that a man could do to save my life. Now don't stay here a second longer. Go or you will burn up with the rest of us." But Brenner kept at work and released him.

The escape of Postal Clerk J. G. Cayle was wonderful. He says: "I had waked Deegan up at Burnside and it seemed to me that the crash came immediately afterward. I was on the front end of the car. I never heard a word or a moan from Deegan. Then I found myself on the front platform next to what I suppose was the tender. I worked myself down under the car and crawled in the other direction, and kept on, now to the right, now to the left, now up and now down, until I saw the lights. Then I struggled for dear life and came to where assistance was rendered me. My escape is a mystery to myself."

Rescuers went into the tunnel after J. E. Montgomery, a brakeman, and laid him against the side of the tunnel while they went back after Pat Taylor, the engineer. They carried Taylor clear out of the tunnel and then went back for Montgomery, but the flames cut them off and they had to retreat, leaving him to burn to death.

It is believed that nothing but ashes will ever be found of those that perished inside the tunnel. It will be several days before the tunnel can be explored.

Southern Pacific Gossip.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—In railroad circles considerable quiet talk is being indulged in, and the talkers claim to know that an appraisement is to be made at an early date of the Southern Pacific company's property at the instance of Messrs. Stillman & Hubbard, of New York, representing Mrs. Hopkins-Searles. This extremely wealthy lady wants to sell out, say railroad men here, and put her money in securities with coupons attached to them. Senator Sanford's most intimate friends are after him to dispose of his interest in the railroad company, and put his cash into some business where there will be little or no worry to the old gentleman.

A Scandalous Scheme.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Great indignation exists here over the alleged discovery of an organized scheme to debauch little girls. Tuesday a member of the police force named Bell was dismissed for being implicated, and now Thomas W. P. Patterson has been arrested on a like charge. Patterson is a married man, well known in business and church circles. He was held in $5,000 bonds for examination Oct. 29. Several children accuse him. He says the affair is one of blackmail.

"Old Hutch" Was Thrown Out.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—"Old Hutch," the king of the board of trade, was very unceremoniously thrown out of the barroom of Gore's hotel at midnight by the bartender. He got into trouble through his attempt to interfere in behalf of a friend named J. H. Wehn, who had abused the barkeeper till he was put out. When "Old Hutch" remonstrated with the bartender he was caught by the collar and hustled out in the same manner.

Kimball Pleads Guilty.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 24.—In the superior court Frederick Kimball, ex-teller of the People's savings bank in this city, who is accused of stealing over $50,000, and who went to Europe with the Le Bon woman and on returning was arrested in New York, plead "guilty" to an indictment charging embezzlement. It is understood that his case will be called for sentence Nov. 1.

The Baseball War.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—It was thought that when the National Baseball league closed its meeting Wednesday night that the prospects for a settlement of the baseball question looked further off than ever. The appearance of a number of capitalists about the hotels Thursday morning gave rise to a rumor that affairs may be patched up sooner than the public expect. Chris Von der Ahe was at the Fifth avenue and said that he was merely staying in the city to see how things were going. The Players' league, he said, "might be in session" and "might withdraw the players from the committee." Then he said everything would run along smoothly. None of the members of the Players' league could be found at the hotels, so it was impossible to ascertain whether they would agree to the demands of the League.

Recruits for Mormondom.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—At the barge office Thursday there were 167 Mormons landed from the steamer Wisconsin. An ineffectual effort was made to detain them.

Speer's Port Grape Wine!

FOUR YEARS OLD.

THIS CELEBRATED WINE is the pure juice of the dead ripe Oporto Grape, raised in Speer's vineyards, and left hanging until they shrink and become partly raisined before gathering. Its invaluable are unsurpassed by any other Winea. Being produced under Mr. Speer's personal supervision, it purity and genuineness are guaranted by the principal Hospitals and Boards of Health who have examined it. The youngest child and the weakest invalids use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and suited to the various ailments that affect the weaker sex.

TONIC AND STRENGTHENING PROPERTIES

It is in every respect A WINE TO BE RELIED ON

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every trace of impurity from the blood and builds up the weakened system.

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed and by a continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy." B. THE CASE GROWS WORSE

Forger Robinson's Crookedness Assumes Larger Proportions.

HE WAS BOLD IN HIS CRIME.

It Has Just Been Discovered That After the Exposure He Went to New York and Closed Out His Firm's Business There—No Trace of Him.

BROCKTON, Mass., Oct. 29.—The C. W. Robinson forgery case continues to occupy the attention of financial circles hereabouts, and as the news of the defalcation becomes better known the extent of Robinson's wrongdoing grows larger.

It was learned Tuesday that the Randolph National bank held notes for $2,500 pretended to have been made by S. P. Howard & Co. and having the indorsement of the firm. Robinson, needing this note as collateral, forged the personal note of Henry L. Bryant, of this city. It is also learned that $5,000 in forged notes are held by Boston parties.

Tuesday morning S. P. Howard, of the firm, telegraphed Pernell & Hageman, of the Consolidated Exchange, New York, who have done business with S. P. Howard & Co., asking how the firm's account stood, and was informed that Mr. Robinson was at their place of business last Saturday and closed the account. Mr. Pernell said he would write at once, giving a detailed account of the settlement. It is not known how much money was paid to Robinson.

Ten Thousand That He Missed.

About ten days ago Robinson pressed matters hard for a loan of $10,000 from the Arlington National bank, leaving the signature of H. L. Bryant, S. B. Howard and E. Coldthwaite, but was refused, as he admitted that he wanted the money to put into a bucket shop.

His police court accounts are receiving close attention, but as matters are so mixed it will be several days before any final statement can be made. Although there has been a large amount of business conducted at this court for the past six months, Robinson's cash book does not show any entries since last March. Comptroller of Accounts R. B. Loring, of Boston, was here Tuesday, and hastily looked over the papers. He gave it as his opinion that the city of Brockton will lose quite an amount.

No settlement has been made with the city since Robinson took the position of clerk of the court six years ago, although he paid in several accounts each year. The first year the account aggregated $5,000, but since then the amounts have been growing smaller until last year, when it was less than one-half that sum.

A Forger Caught.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—Sheriff Ragland, of St. Clair county, received a dispatch from the chief of police of New Orleans, stating that John F. Pannier, the absconding defaulter of Belleville, was under arrest there. The sheriff started for the capital to get the necessary requisition papers, and after they are obtained will leave for New Orleans to bring Pannier back to Belleville.

Pannier's defalcations aggregate about $4,000. He was treasurer of the order of the Golden Rule, the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias and grand treasurer of the grand lodge of Truebund of Illinois. Besides appropriating funds belonging to these orders it is said he passed several forged checks.

Arrested for Forgery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—James C. Levy, a drummer for M. Gould's Sons, of 105 Duane street, was arrested and arraigned at the Tombs police court charged with forgery to the amount of $4,000. The firm charges that while on the road Levy collected money from various firms due his employers, and when checks were given him he forged the indorsement of the firm and appropriated the money to his own use. Levy in his defense claims he had full authority to indorse the checks. He was held in $1,000 bail for examination.

To Decide a Delicate Question.

BROCKTON, Mass., Oct. 29.—The question of this city's issue of bonds for the erection of a soldiers' memorial hall is to be considered by the full bench of the supreme court, whose decision will be of wide interest. The legislature has repeatedly empowered cities and towns to appropriate money for the erection and support of memorials, and the question as to the legality of such legislation has never before been raised. The legislature this year authorized this city to appropriate money for a memorial, and the city council accordingly appropriated $40,000 for the purpose. The building is to be used by the Grand Army and the public library. The petitioners to the court claim that the statute governing such appropriations has been violated, inasmuch as the building is not to be exclusively used by the public, but in part by an organization.

Pattison Sues for Criminal Libel.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—A Philadelphia constable Tuesday morning served warrants in the criminal libel suit of ex-Governor Pattison against W. F. Jordan, proprietor, and J. J. McLaurin, editor, of The Morning Call, of this city. Both defendants waived a hearing, and gave bail in the sum of $1,500 for their appearance at the quarter sessions court in Philadelphia. The security was furnished by Col. W. P. Smull.

The Restive Train Under Way.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—"George Francis Train, from Tacoma, eighty-six hours," was scrawled in blue in pencil on the Palmer house register. The eccentric world circler arrived in the city, but got away before anybody had a chance to have a talk with him. He was on his way from Tacoma to New York.

THEY ROSE IN DESPAIR.

Russian Prisoners on Their Way to Yakootsk Revolt.

THEIR GUARDS SURPRISED.

The Commanding Officer Tied to a Mast and Flogged—They Make Good Their Escape, but Some Are Recaptured. A Franco-Russian Alliance.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Another tale of suffering, revolt and butchery comes from Siberia. A company of convicts were being taken down the river Lena in a steamer to Yakootsk under military guard. They suffered great privations and had been treated with intolerable cruelty on board. Two of them were flogged for complaining of their ill treatment and the others were confined in the noisome and stifling hold under deck.

Their protests were disregarded, and in despair they rose against their tormentors. They surprised the soldiers, disarmed and bound them, and tying their commanding officer to the mast whipped him with the same instrument with which their companions had been flogged.

They mercifully spared his life, and then nailing up in the cabin a paper recounting their grievances they left the vessel and fled into the interior. The steamer was allowed to pursue its way to Yakootsk, where it arrived the next day.

The governor of Yakootsk sent troops in pursuit of the fugitives. The latter had dispersed, but at last accounts seven of the fugitives had been overtaken, two of whom had been killed and five made prisoners.

A Russian Conspiracy Unearthed.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Russian police are showing more than usual activity in hunting down nihilists, and arrests are being made by wholesale in St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Odessa. In Odessa most of the victims are Jews, and if no other evidence can be found against them they are deported to Siberia on the charge of violating the laws directed against that race.

The police claim to have discovered an enormous conspiracy, involving at the same time a revolutionary propaganda and the forgery by millions of the paper money of the empire.

That Consumption Cure Ready.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The National Zeitung announces in the most positive manner that Professor Koch, whose researches as to the existence of a bacillus in consumption have already given him a European reputation, is now ready to announce to the world, having concluded certain important experiments, his method for curing that malady by painless inoculation.

Minister Gossler has given him permission to abandon his winter course of lectures before the university, in order that he may devote his entire attention to his discovery.

Balfour's Tour.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—Mr. Balfour, who arrived at the island of Achill yesterday, passed the night at the residence of the parish priest. Today he will make a tour of the island.

The Freeman's Journal says: "Mr. Balfour has been received everywhere without demonstration, either hostile or friendly. He must not mistake civility for servility, or, like his predecessors, he will find that he has built his hopes on sand."

A Dire Prediction.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Standard, in a long leader on the subject, declares that the French tariff and the McKinley bill have plunged the civilized world into inevitable war, and predicts that the entire continent will retaliate sooner or later in a way that will convince the high protectionists of the fatal gravity of their error.

A Franco-Russian Alliance.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Telegraph publishes the following dispatch from its correspondent in St. Petersburg:

"It is believed seriously in diplomatic circles here that Gen. Obrnscheff, who is now in Paris, is authorized to formulate the military conditions for a regular alliance between France and Russia."

Invoking Spain's Aid.

MADRID, Oct. 29.—Thirty-two of the Catholic bishops who assisted at the Catholic congress at Saragossa have addressed a petition to the queen regent asking Spain to put a stop to the unjust treatment of the pope at the hands of Italy.

Churches and Monasteries Closed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—The government has closed the Catholic churches at Volhynia and Padolia, and also the Dominican monastery at Ostrog.

Deliberately Poisoned Her Husband.

WOONSOCKET, S. D., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Rearick, charged with poisoning her husband, has made a full confession. She had a quarrel with her husband, and deliberately put him out of the way. She put strychnine in some medicine he was taking, and quietly gave him the dose that caused his death in a few hours. Now she says she regrets the act. She was maddened by the fact that her late husband frequently twitted her on her past digressions.

The Lynching Was Abandoned.

DENVER, Oct. 29.—A mob was organized to lynch Tony Kirby, the murderer of Robert Ronan. Kirby is incarcerated in the city jail. The police learned of the premeditated lynching bee in time to be prepared for the attack, and the attempt was abandoned. Ronan's friends openly threatened to kill Kirby at the first opportunity. Kirby and Ronan recently fought a duel in a gambling house.

A Family Sorely Stricken.

MONMOUTH, Ills., Oct. 29.—The Heffner family, of this city, has been sorely stricken with malignant typhoid fever. H. D. Heffner, a clothing merchant, died yesterday. William F. died a few days ago, and two other brothers and a child are dangerously ill.

Professor Eddy Makes a Change.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 29.—Professor Eddy, dean of the faculty of the University of Cincinnati, has accepted the presidency of the Rose Polytechnic college, of this city.

Stole the Society's Funds.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—The police arrested J. F. Pannier, of Belleville, Ills., on a charge of embezzling $4,000 from a singing society in that town.

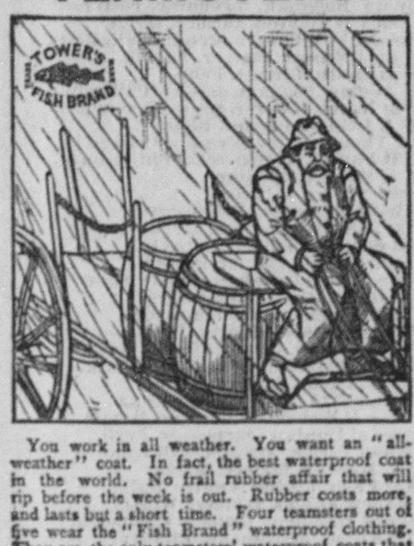
TEAMSTERS.



You work in all weather. You want an "all-weather" coat. In fact, the best waterproof coat in the world. No frail rubber affair that will rip before the week is out. Rubber costs more, and lasts but a short time. Four teamsters out of five wear the "Fish Brand" waterproof clothing. They are the only teamsters' waterproof coats that are light, strong, durable, and cheap. They cost very little, and last a long time. They never get sticky or peel off. The buttons are wire-fastened, and never come off. They are absolutely waterproof and wind-proof. Until you own one you will never know the comfort of a rainy day. Beware of worthless imitations, every garment stamped with the "Fish Brand" Trade Mark. Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below!

BROOKLYN, Conn., May 5, '90.
DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.:
Sirs:—Last Summer I cured a Curb upon my horse with your celebrated Kendall's Spavin Cure and it was the best job I ever saw done. I have a dozen empty bottles, having used it with perfect success, curing every thing I tried it on. My neighbor had a horse with a very bad Spavin that made him lame. He asked me how to cure it. I recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure. He cured the Spavin in just three weeks.
Yours respectfully,
WOLCOTT WITTER.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 4, '90.
DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.:
Dear Sirs:—I have been selling more of Kendall's Spavin Cure and Flint's Condition Powders than ever before. One man said to me, it was the best Powder I ever kept and the best he ever used.
Respectfully,
OTTO L. HOFFMAN.

CHITTENANGO, N. Y., May 19, '90.
DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.,
Dear Sirs:—I have used several bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with perfect success, on a valuable and blooded mare that was quite lame with a Bone Spavin. The mare is now entirely free from lameness and shows no bunch on the joint.
Respectfully, F. H. HUTCHINS.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

MONROE, La., May 3, '90.
DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.,
Gents:—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for your far famed Kendall's Spavin Cure. I had a four year old filly which I prized very highly. She had a very severe swollen leg. I tried about eight different kinds of medicines which did no good. I purchased a bottle of your Kendall's Spavin Cure which cured her in four days.
I remain yours,
MARION DOWDEN.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont.

The Only One.

Again it affords us much pleasure to be able to record the fact that the Pittsburg Exposition opened its doors promptly as advertised. The many things to be seen are worthy of much of our space, but we will dwell only on one exhibit, the only one of its kind at the great show. Well may we say it is worthy of comment. We refer with pride to the display of Mr Max Klein, the wholesale liquor merchant. There you will find a complete distillery in full operation. His Silver Age Rye stands on a pyramid high enough to overlook all other displays; the bbs, and cases show at once the extent of his trades, conveying the impression that he ships to all parts of the country. His Pennsylvania Rye Whiskies, his imported and domestic wines, brandies and cordials are prominent features. No other liquor house in the country would dare to compete with him in making a display, and no other house in his line can or will sell goods as pure and at such reasonable prices. You can leave orders at his stand or apply to him direct for his complete catalogue and price list. Such a house should receive the custom of all who wish fair treatment and to Max Klein 82, Federal St., Allegheny, Pa., we can recommend you.

Consumption Surely Cured.
TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

A WAIL FROM CANADA.

"The Sooner We Haul Down Our Flag, the Better."

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 29.—James A. Shipman, a prominent flour dealer and supporter of the government, publishes a letter in the local papers showing that Canadian flour shipped from the heart of Ontario is being exported to Newfoundland via New York.

He refers to the pledges of cabinet ministers that they would counteract the effects of the McKinley bill by seeking new markets and aiding exporters by affording rapid transit through Canadian territory, and bittery complains that the freight agents of the Intercolonial railway, operated by the government, have made no export tariff for Canadian products going to Newfoundland and the West Indies; hence Canadian products to Newfoundland pass through the hands of the United States middlemen.

Mr. Shipman says: "Newfoundland requires 365,000 barrels of flour per annum, and we have this year the article to give them cheaper and better adapted to their wants than that of the United States, besides oatmeal, peas, beans, butter, cheese, hay, oats, vegetables and a thousand other things, and if we must be dependent upon foreign ports and middlemen to supply that trade the sooner we haul down our flag and confess our utter dependence upon the United States the better."

HE CUT A PRETTY WIDE SWATH.

But He Was Only a Horse Thief and Bigamist After All.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Oct. 29.—A Pennsylvania German has been masquerading around here in the guise of a cowboy for some time buying farms and cutting a pretty wide swath. The field of operation was in a German settlement in Blenheim township, near the scene of the Benwell tragedy. The stranger showed checks amounting in value to $250,000, and whether good or not they mesmerized the neighborhood.

He purchased several farms in the neighborhood at high figures, giving notes for payment. He then took possession and began to dispose of the poultry and stock. He also succeeded in capturing one of Blenheim's fair daughters, and they were married.

Yesterday he was arrested on a charge of horse stealing, and it turns out that he is one C. E. Miller, a veterinary surgeon from Pennsylvania, who is wanted in that state on several charges. It is also claimed that he has half a dozen wives in the states.

The Crew Miraculously Escaped.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—W. H. Brown's tow boat Alex Swift exploded her boilers at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning while steaming up the Monongahela river opposite Glenwood. The crew, eight in number, miraculously escaped the shock of the explosion and swam safely to the shore. The Alex Swift was one of the largest tow boats on the river, and was returning from her first trip since she was completely overhauled. The boat is a complete wreck, and will be a total loss to her owners. The boat was valued at about $30,000.

Playfulness More Fatal Than Funny.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—John Berrigen, a flagman at Twenty-fifth street and Stewart avenue, was shot and fatally wounded by August Montie, a switchman. Berrigen was sitting in his shanty playing with a revolver and trying to discharge it, but it wouldn't explode. Montie came in, and taking the revolver snapped it playfully at Berrigen. It exploded and the ball tore a hole in Berrigen's neck. The carotid artery was severed and the bullet took a downward course, lodging near the spine.

The Great Team Smashes the Record.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Oct. 29.—The famous team Belle Hamlin and Justina started to beat the pole record of 2:13¼ made last Friday. They went down the stretch against a strong head wind. The first quarter was made in 33½; half mile, 1:06¾; third quarter, in 1:40½. Here Justina left her feet, but was at work instantly, and the team passed the wire in 2:13, knocking a quarter of a second from the pole record made last week and beating the world's record.

Gen. Roberts Dead.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 29.—Gen. Stephen H. Roberts died at his residence here, aged about 72 years. He served in the Indian and Mexican wars and during the late rebellion was in command of the One Hundred and Sixty-ninth New York volunteers, and afterward commanded a brigade. He was a personal friend of Lincoln, Grant and McClellan. Gen. Roberts was appointed postmaster of Brooklyn by President Lincoln.

Buffalo's Irish Fund.

BUFFALO, Oct. 29.—The Irish National league relief fund has been increased by subscriptions $469, making the total $4,789.

Shaken Out of Gear,

By malarial disease, the human machinery cannot half perform its office. Digestion, secretion evacuation are disordered, the blood becomes watery, the nerves feeble, the countenance ghastly, sleep disturbed and appetite capricious. Terrible is this disease, fell its consequences. There is, however, a known antidote to the miasmatic poison, and a certain safeguard against it. In malarious regions of our South and West, in South American Guatemala and on the Isthmus of Panama as well as in transmarine countries where the scourge exists, this inimitable preventive and remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has, during the last thirty-five years, been constantly widening the area of its usefulness, and demonstrating its sovereign value. Liver complaint, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility are all remedied by it. tf

—A brute in the shape of a young man assaulted a 13-year old girl on Monday morning. The brute was arrested, given a hearing and will now suffer the penalty of his crime. Such men ought to be summarily dealt with.

—The men employed at the Taylor bank got into a riot on Monday evening and the Sheriff was telephoned for. Mr. Cooke, Policeman Garis and John Love went down to see about the matter. It seems the fighting was about a Hungarian stealing a half dollar. Only one man was arrested. Nobody was hurt very seriously.

Every day it becomes clearer that beauty and morals are not, as a rule, closely allied.

Looking out over the many homes of this country, we see thousands of women wearing away their lives in household drudgery when they might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of SAPOLIO. If an hour is saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the face because the toil is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hesitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs.

WANAMAKER REFUSED.

He Wouldn't Give the Civil Service Folks Any Information.

NONE OF THEIR BUSINESS.

The Postmaster General Held That They Had No Right to Have Access to the Facts in Regard to Removals and Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The special committee of the National Civil Service Reform league, consisting of William D. Foulke, chairman; Charles J. Bonaparte, Richard H. Dana, Wayne MacVeigh and Sherman S. Rogers, appointed to inquire into the condition of the federal service and the operation of the reform law, has completed and submitted the results of its investigation of removals and resignations of presidential postmasters the first year of the presentation.

The report says that the committee noted with satisfaction in their last report the improved condition of the patent office and the adherence to civil service principles in its management, but complains of the business methods of the postoffice department in respect to removals and appointments of presidential postmasters.

Complained to the President.

A large portion of the report is taken up by letter to President Harrison from Mr. Foulke in regard to correspondence between the latter and Postmaster General Wanamaker, who refused to give access to the records and information as to the removals of postmasters, on the ground that the department was governed by a well established precedent, which denied to the public the privilege of inspecting papers in appointment cases.

On March 4 Mr. Foulke called upon the postmaster general (by request), but he would not allow him to examine the files of the daily bulletin, telling him at the time that he had no business to see them, and that he could obtain the desired information from the daily newspapers. Mr. Foulke complains to the president that the postmaster general discriminated against him in giving information to the editor of a civil service reform paper in Baltimore. The president merely acknowledged the receipt of this letter. He made no answer to it.

What the Committee Says.

The committee says that "the lists of postmasters removed and appointed ought to be a public record, that any person dealing with the department should have the right to know who is the lawfully commissioned officer, when he was appointed, and when his term would expire, and ought not to be required to establish a special interest before being permitted to inspect this list, any more than if it were the record of a court of justice or of a legislative body.

"If the postmaster general has the discretionary right to refuse such inspection, the exercise of this right cannot fail to incur the distrust of those who believe that the public service should be administered with such publicity as not to shrink from examination."

The committee has had correspondence with a large number of postmasters to ascertain whether they voluntarily resigned or were removed. They received 143 answers to cases of resignation and in 95 cases it appeared that the resignations were voluntary and in 48 cases were not.

The report contains letters from these postmasters showing that in many cases they were peremptorily removed without cause. It concludes by saying that the conclusion is obvious that many so called resignations were not such in fact, but that the charges were made in spirit and essence for political purposes.

World's Fair Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The fine art committee of the World's fair commission met Thursday afternoon in the Hotel Brunswick. W. J. Buchanan, of Sioux City, presided. Mr. Buchanan said that letters had been written to all the states and territories asking the co-operation of the authorities. Replies from all but two had been received promising their assistance. A committee of three was appointed to formulate plans for the carrying out of the work of the general committee. The members present were H. Woodward, of Maryland; E. Upshan, Maryland; W. Wilson, of Washington, D. C., and H. Hodges, of Louisiana. The committee will meet again Friday.

Yellow Jack, Perhaps.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Health Commissioner Griffin is engaged in investigating a suspicious case which may turn out to be yellow fever. The victim was a man who arrived here from Santiago on the steamer Santiago on Oct. 17. He died last night at 79 Gold street. The vessel had a clean bill of health from quarantine, which was filed in New York. The house has been quarantined, and a post mortem examination will be made on the body. There is a report that there are two other "suspicious cases."

Gen. Davis Dies Suddenly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Gen. Davis, a veteran of the late war, who was visiting friends at 175 West Twelfth street, died suddenly Thursday morning. He belonged in Gloversville, and was colonel of the regiment of the national guard in that section of the state. His comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic will take charge of his remains.

LAID IN ASHES.

The Business Portion of East Pepperell, Mass., Consumed by Fire.

EAST PEPPERELL, Oct. 25.—A big fire was discovered Friday morning in the shoe factory of Leighton Bros., and soon after the flames were first outlined against the sky the whole building was ablaze. A high wind was blowing and the flames spread rapidly, and almost before the people in the neighborhood were aware of their danger the fire was threatening their lives. It spread from the shoe factory to a row of wooden boarding houses.

Help was summoned from the surrounding towns. Nashua responded with some of her trucks and men. Before the flames could be attacked successfully the shoe factory had been burned to the ground, also three residences, seven stores and a block of boarding houses. The loss is estimated at $300,000. Shortly after daybreak the fire was gotten under control. Several hundred persons are thrown out of employment by the fire, and the town is in a distressed condition.

East Pepperell is a small post village on the Fitchburg railroad, about twenty miles from Boston; population about 1,200. A paper mill and a shoe factory are there.

Speaker Reed Lionized.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Speaker Reed is the lion of the hour in Chicago. He arrived from Waterloo, Ia., at 9 o'clock Friday morning, and, notwithstanding the early hour, a committee of the Union League was in waiting to receive him. He was escorted to the Grand Pacific hotel, where he breakfasted, and later was taken to the Union League club. Then he was given a drive around the city. In the evening, between 4 and 6, a reception was tendered him by the members of the club and their ladies. The reception was non-political, as the membership of the club represents all shades of politics. After the banquet the speaker, escorted by a torchlight procession and numerous bands, proceeded to Battery "D," where a big audience heard him discuss the tariff question and kindred matters.

The Iron and Steel Men.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Not more than a half dozen members of the British Iron and Steel association are now in the city, but it is expected that more than 300 will arrive by Saturday. No official programme of maneuvers has been arranged for the day. The delegates will visit the public buildings Saturday morning. At 3 o'clock they will be received by the president, after which they will continue their sight seeing. In the evening a promenade concert will be given at the Arlington hotel from 8:30 to 10 o'clock. From Washington the delegates will go to Baltimore, remaining there for a day and then proceeding to Niagara Falls. They will visit several cities in the Dominion before returning to England

The Seventh Victim.

SOMERSET, Ky., Oct. 25.—Pat Taylor, the engineer in the wreck at Sloan's Valley yesterday, died this morning. His remains will be taken to Lexington for interment. This is the seventh victim of the wreck.

Two Men Killed in a Collision.

ELLENBURG, Wash., Oct. 25.—A collision occurred between two freight trains yesterday afternoon on the Northern Pacific, near the west end of Stampede tunnel. Two men were killed.

Settled by Arbitration.

MARLBORO, Mass., Oct. 25.—The state board of arbitration succeeded in settling the troubles at the shoe factory of Rice & Hutchins, and all hands have returned to work.

A Flax Mill Destroyed.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Oct. 25.—The main building of the flax mill of the Huntington Bagging company was destroyed by fire.

The Weather.

Cooler, threatening weather and showers; northwesterly winds.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Closing Quotations of the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Money on call loaned at easy rates, viz.: 5@6 per cent. Exchange steady; posted rates, $4.82@4.87; actual rates, $4.81¼@4.81½ for sixty days and $4.86¼@4.86½ for demand. Governments steady; currency 6s, 113 bid; 4s, coupon, 124¼ bid; 4½s, do., 104¼ bid.

The stock market was more active this morning than upon any morning during the week. As on yesterday the Sugar trusts were the features. They were heavily sold during the first hour and recorded a net decline of 5¼ per cent. from last night's closing. Chicago gas and silver certificates were the next weakest, declining 1¼ and 2 per cent. respectively. The weakness of the speculatives named had a depressing effect on the whole market, and at 11:30 the general list was off ¼ to 1 per cent. In the half hour to noon there was a fractional recovery. At the close the market was dull.

Cardinal Alimonda Dying.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Cardinal Alimonda, the archbishop of Turin, who is in a moribund condition, has long been regarded as the probable successor of Pope Leo XIII to the chair of St. Peter. He is one of the most learned of the Italian members of the sacred college, and enjoys in a high degree the confidence and affection of the pontiff.

The Boat Had Been Stolen.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 24.—The mystery surrounding the schooner yacht found ashore at Happy Hollow has been cleared up. The boat was stolen last Thursday by seven young men, who sailed to Prudence island. They abandoned the yacht at Bristol, and in Sunday's gale she was driven ashore where found.

He Tallied With the Photo.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 24.—Frank W. Hall, who says he is from Easton, Pa., was arrested here as a suspicious character. He tallied exactly with the photograph and description of Walter E. Huey, a member of the harbor commission of San Francisco, who is wanted in the latter city for embezzling $20,000 of public money. Hall was sentenced to thirty days in the work house, and meantime his case will be investigated.

That woman picking grapes for Speer's Wines. Just see her in another column and read about it; the wines are found by chemists to be absolutely pure and equal to the best in the World. The Board of Health in Large Cities and leading Hospitals have adopted their use where wines are needed. aug 7 1y

At a Good Old Age.

Mrs. Hannah Woods died at the residence of her son, in Boggs township, this county, on the 4th instant, aged 101 years, 11 months and 18 days. Rev. B. J. Hummel, who conducted the funeral services, furnishes us with the following: "Hannah Woods was born in Centre county, Pa., near Houserville, October 16th, 1789. She was the mother of eight children, six boys and two girls, four of whom survive her, three boys and one girl. Her maiden name was Spotts, and she has two sisters and one brother living. Early in life she united herself with the Methodist church, afterwards she joined the Baptist; still later in life she, for convenience, gave her name to the United Brethren church where she made her home until she exchanged time for eternity. She was a good woman and in her last affliction gave evidence that she was ready to die and longed for the time when she would be at rest. She was buried at Summitt Hill cemetery on Monday afternoon, October 6th 1890.—Clearfield Republican.

Oh, says mamma to her husband, such good news! Baby talks. He has just said his first words.

Really?

Yes; just fancy. We were at the monkey cage in the park, when baby cried out. Ah, papa!

INSPIRED BY BISMARCK.

A Note of Warning Sounded Anent the Frankfort Treaty.

THE IRISH NATIONALISTS.

They Are More Closely Pressed for Money Than Has Been Suspected—Gladstone's Candidate Roby Triumphs in the Election at Eccles.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Hamburg Nachrichten, in an editorial supposed to have been inspired by Prince Bismarck, points out the danger of the suggested ignoring of the second clause of the Frankfort treaty in connection with the customs union with Austria. The article contains this declaration: "Whatever France does, Germany is bound by her engagements. Her only remedy will be to cancel or modify the clause, which no German statesman would dream of doing."

It concludes thus: "It is imperative to dictate a policy which will avoid sewing the germ of differences with France in agreements with Austria. If a dispute is once kindled on account of the treaty of Frankfort, who can foresee the consequences?"

Crippled Nationalists.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Letters and telegrams from Dublin published in the London papers represent the Irish National league as more closely pressed for money than had been suspected. The special collections taken in the churches will not more than defray the ordinary expenses of the league, which are now being largely increased, owing to the numerous recent and impending evictions.

It is asserted by Timothy Harrington and other prominent leaguers that the increased activity of the landlords at this juncture is in pursuance of a concerted plan to embarrass the league at a time when it is believed to be straitened for funds by throwing upon it for support a much larger number of evicted tenants.

The number to be supported has certainly greatly increased of late, while the funds, with the closest economy of administration, admittedly hardly meet the expenditures. Should this continue it is said a general election, which the government might at any favorable moment precipitate, would find the home rule party disabled in advance of the encounter.

Gladstone's Man Wins.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The result of the Eccles election, which transfers the seat from the Conservatives to the Gladstonians, was a genuine surprise to both parties. The interest in the contest was intense, and for several hours last evening thousands of persons crowded Fleet street awaiting the announcement of the vote. When the news came the Liberal element, which greatly predominated, set up a tremendous cheer, which was again and again taken up as the full significance of the victory would force itself upon the minds of the delighted Liberals.

Mr. Roby, the Liberal candidate, was favored both by the temperance and labor organizations, having declared himself for an eight hour law, and also for local option as to licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors and against compensating publicans at the expense of the rate payers for the withdrawal of license. The Irish vote in the district, about 600 strong, also voted solidly for Roby. The Conservative candidate, Mr. Egerton, had on his side the influence long exercised by the family as extensive owners of mines, and was supported by the Church of England Temperance society.

Dillon and O'Brien Feted.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—A reception was given by M. Raffalovitch, the father-in-law of Mr. William O'Brien, in honor of Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien. A distinguished company was present, and among the illustrious Frenchmen who called to pay their respects to the Irish patriots were MM. Joseph Ernest Renan and Hector Henri Malot, the authors.

Lord Dunlo's Mishap.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Lord Dunlo, whose marriage and subsequent attempt to secure a divorce from Lady Dunlo—formerly Belle Bilton, a concert hall actress—created great interest, was Thursday thrown from his horse and had his shoulder dislocated.

Poisoned His Family.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—A retired farmer, named Gast, living in the vicinity of this city, gave his children poisoned sweetmeats to eat and partook of some himself. Gast and three of the children are dead. Two other children are dying.

War Material for Russia.

BREST, Oct. 24.—A vessel loaded with a cargo of gun cotton manufactured in government factories in France, and consigned to the Russian government, has sailed from this port.

Gen. Stark's Statue Unveiled.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 24.—The bronze statue of Maj. Gen. John Stark, the hero of the battle of Bennington, was unveiled in the state house yard Thursday forenoon. After an opening address by ex-Governor Moody Currier, the statue was unveiled by Miss Florence S. Shirley, of Goffstown, daughter of Councilor Shirley. The First regiment band then rendered a selection, following which Hon. James W. Patterson, of Hanover, delivered the oration. A poem by Allen Eastman Cross, of Manchester, concluded the exercises in the park. A state dinner was then served in the Eagle hotel to the invited guests.

Accused of Murdering His Father.

CRESSWELL, Mich., Oct. 24.—The body of William Swader, of Adams Corners, was found in his barnyard with his head full of shot, the skull crushed, and other terrible marks of violence. The most conclusive evidence points to his son as the perpetrator, and he was arrested and lodged in the Huron county jail at Bad Axe, to await trial at the next term of the circuit court. One cause of the crime is said to be the idea of the murderer that a part of the estate would become his only in case his father died without a will. The murdered man leaves a family of nine children.

Shot His Wife and Killed Himself.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Oct. 24.—William Galow, a German, shot and killed his wife here and then committed suicide. Domestic infelicity is the cause. Both were over 50 years of age and leave eight children.

When to Prune Apple Orchards.

EDS. COUNTRY GENTLEMAN—This is a subject on which a great variety of opinions have been expressed, and yet does not appear to be fully decided. Having had some experience in the matter, and having charge of some thousand orchard trees, and being advanced in years, I thought I would make a statement of the conclusions reached in my judgment.

Most orchardists know that the practice of neglecting to prune an orchard for some years, and then pruning heavily, is very injurious. If trees are properly pruned while young, and the sprouts or suckers rubbed off once or twice each summer, it will obviate a great deal of after-pruning. But what I want to show is, when it it necessary to take off thrifty limbs of some size, as in the case of top grafting or opening out the top of a tree—at what season of the year it should be done.

About twenty years ago the idea was current in many papers that June was the time to prune; that if done then the wound would soon heal over. I tried that season and pruned some trees and was pleased to see how soon the new wood began forming over the stumps of limbs taken off at that time. But I soon found that the healing over was not the main object, but the preservation of the wood below and down the body of the tree, for I noticed that, in a few years after, the stumps of limbs taken off at that season of the year had decayed, and often showed signs of decay some distance below. I therefore concluded that late spring or early summer was, of all seasons, the most unfavorable to prune. I had noticed that where limbs were broken off in the fall with weight of apples, the part below the break generally remained sound. I therefore determined to give each season of the year a fair trial for pruning. I selected a thrifty apple tree about half grown, which was furnished with a number of limbs, and cut off a limb about the middle of each month in the year, leaving a stump of two or three inches long, and labeling it with the date of the operation. I observed in a few years after, that the stumps of those limbs taken off in late spring and early summer were somewhat decayed, while the others, and particularly those taken off in the fall, were sound. A few years after I cut the tree down for inspection, and found that the decay of those limbs showed in the body of the tree by colored portions approaching decay. Therefore I was fully convinced that the spring of the year and early summer was not the time to take off thrifty limbs of some size, though it might do for small pruning or for decaying branches. Any person who is familiar with the cutting of young timber, knows that a sapling cut in the spring of the year soon rots, and the stump also; but if cut in the fall will remain sound for some time, and the wood when dressed will have an oily appearance.

As to the time for larger pruning, I would recommend for the latitude of Central Pennsylvania to commence about the middle or latter part of 9 mo September). Fruit gathering may prevent beginning thus early, but it may be done immediately after the apples are gathered. Another great advantage in pruning before the leaves have fallen off, is that we can more readily observe those limbs which nature has concluded to throw off, and assist her in the operation. I would say to orchardists, do not too readily take up with the conclusions of others, but experiment, and get this matter of the time to prune settled.

Centre County, Penn. W. P. FISHER.

Killed Outright.

The following from the Lock Haven Democrat must have reference to Mr. J. H. Webber, of Centre Hall:

A terrible affair occurred on the 18th instant in the Sugar Valley narrows, which has just come to light, the result of which was the loss of another valuable life at the hands of an unrelenting and cruel murderer. The fearful deed was committed in the broad glare of the open day, about one mile from the public road in a place not much frequented by man or beast. What the victim's first name was we do not know, but his last name was Bear and he did not belong to the white or Caucasian race. On the contrary he was quite black, and was hunting chestnuts, when he was met by a man from Centre Hall by the name of Webber, who was prowling around those parts and had been frequently seen by various people. Whether they had ever met before we do not know, but at any rate, on coming in contact with each other on this occasion Webber immediately raised his gun and shot Bear dead. Next day Webber was not seen and has not been heard from since. No arrest has yet been made.

Death of Mrs. Blanche Hoover.

A sad, though not unexpected, death was that of Mrs. Edith Blanche Hoover, wife of Mr. Grant Hoover, of Mt. Jewett, Pa., which occurred on Saturday night, October 18th, about 10 o'clock, and which was caused by consumption. Mrs. Hoover was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore, of Milesburg, and was only about 20 years of age. She was married less than a year, having been united in wedlock with Mr. Grant Hoover in last January.

About six weeks ago she came from Mt. Jewett to the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Pownell, in Milesburg, where she was when death relieved her sufferings. About three weeks ago she took to her bed and was there confined until her death. The funeral of deceased occurred on Tuesday forenoon at 10 o'clock. The remains were brought to Bellefonte and interred in the Union cemetery in this place. Rev. G. W. Bouse, of Milesburg, assisted by Rev. Barton, of Eagleville, conducted the services. The following persons acted as pall bearers: Messrs. J. L. Bradley Claude Smith, Charles Lingle, Robert Shirk, Clyde Boggs and George Crain.

THE Y. M. C. A.

The last Year Book of the Y. M. C. A. gives a striking array of facts concerning the work of this noble institution.

"There are 4,107 associations in the world, located as follows: United States, 1,259; Canada, 82; Bermuda, 1; Argentine Republic, 1; British Guiana, 1; Chili, 2; West Indies, 5; England and Wales, 278; Ireland, 56; Scotland, 249; France, 61; Germany, 836; Holland, 457; Denmark, 93; Switzerland, 383; Norway, 73; Sweden, 85; Italy, 41; Spain, 8; Belgium, 27; Austria, 5; Hungary, 3; Russia, 9; Bulgaria, 1; European Turkey, 15; Ceylon, 10; China, 6; Japan, 10; Asiatic Turkey, 11, Australia, 11; Persia, 3; Madagascar, 2; Africa, 11; Tasmania, 2; New Zealand, 4; Hawaii, 4.

"Reports received from 1,385 American associations and branches as follows: 815 city and town associations, 257 college departments, 82 railroad branches, 10 German branches, 29 colored associations, 14 Indian associations, and 178 boys' branches, show that the present membership is 212,676, of which 104,435 are active, over one-half not being connected with protestant evangelical churches; 31,974 are working on the different committees; 205 buildings are owned by the associations, valued at $8.352,910, and 135 associations report building funds pledged or paid in amounting to $1,862,352; fifty of these buildings have been secured during the past year, $636,120 has also been paid in or pledged in addition to above for libraries, endowments and special funds.

"The libraries contain 422,912 volumes valued at $426,796, and the furniture is worth $799,559. The expense of carrying on the work was $1,495,340.

"There are 977 men employed, giving all their time to this work, with 118 temporary vacancies.

"Part of these associations report an average daily attendance at rooms of 45,863; 348 have gymnasiums, 220 have other departments of physical culture, 130 have literary societies with an average attendance of 3,094, 242 have educational departments, teaching from one to fifteen branches, with 16,198 different students.

"There were also reported 4,243 lectures and entertainments, and 2,771 sociables; 9,302 situations were secured for young men; 1,574 daily and weekly meetings, including song service, gospel meetings, prayer meetings, Bible and training classes, are sustained, with a total average attendance of 30,831 young men."

No one who has the well-being of humanity at heart can read these statistics without a glow of gratitude that a few years ago it came into the hearts of devoted men to form this association, the value of whose work can never be calculated by figures. The good that has been done by the Y. M. C. A. cannot be known until the accounts are made up at the last day appointed for the final reckoning of all things.

They Say

That the fall trade is good.

That everybody should plant a tree tomorrow.

That October will show a large record of marriages.

That people who never pay their bills will find that there will be no dodging when the "devil is to pay."

That the sugar scoop style prevails in fall hats for women, but husbands and fathers are learning that it takes lots of sugar to scoop them.

That there are more free drinks and free smokes in the month of October than in any other month in the year, and the man who knows no party lines has a picnic during the whole month.

That a witty young lady of Bishop street gave her opinion of the moustache recently, and remarked with peculiar emphasis that she hated a moustache and always set her face against them.

That two-thirds of the people of a town generally keep the other third, and when you come to collect bills of long standing you are forced to believe that such is the case and that you are contributing your share toward the support of the negligent.

IMPORTANT LETTER.

What the Genuine Lincoln Republicans Will do.

As soon as Mr. Wharton Barker, Philadelphia's doubly disappointed aspirant for Cabinet positions, insulted the true Republicans of Pennsylvania by organizing a so-called State Committee of "Lincoln Republicans" in opposition to the party and its nominees, a letter was addressed by the Chairman of the Republican State Committee to Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, now the American Minister to England, former Secretary of War, and the able and popular son of President Lincoln. The letter describes the Barker-Mapes "Lincoln Republican (?) movement, and invited an expression of opinion from the son as to the duty of true Lincoln Republicans in Pennsylvania, in this canvass. The answer is given below and should and will re-awaken the best sentiment of the Republican party. It is quoted entire just as received:

ALDOWIN, INVERNESS, 4th Oct., 1890.

Dear Mr. Andrews:—

Your letter has been delayed in reaching me on account of my absence from London traveling in Scotland, and I must confess too, that I have held it for several days in my reluctance to breaking my rule to leave to others all public reference to my father. It seems to me, however, that if a word from me may be of any importance in the direction you wish, it should be spoken.

The movement you mention recalls up here the old story of the Highland Clan that deserted its friends and went over to the enemy on the field, for no better reason than that it was not given the place of honor in the line of battle That Clan got no good place in the history of either side, and you and I will heartily agree that their political imitators of to-day should fare no better. I do not believe in the sincerity of men claiming to be Republicans, who in a campaign aid the enemy because the majority of the Convention has refused to submit to their dictation nor in the soundness of a position which is based on an assumption of representing the opinions of Republican leaders who can no longer speak for themselves. I pretend to no right to speak for anyone but myself, but I think I may claim a special interest in the memory of my father, and having it, I most earnestly regret the use of his name, as a founder and leader of our party, to induce adhesion to an effort for its own overthrow in Pennsylvania. I know no warrant for such a use. True Republicans should, in my opinion, submit their personal choice to their party and not follow personal malcontents, whose aims identify them with our opponents, if they are not in fact merely masked opponents. For myself I would be, in Pennsylvania, supporter of Senator Delamater, as an ardent and able Republican, holding his defeat, as the chosen head of our ticket, to be dangerous to the national upholding of the principles we have at heart. Wishing all success to your good work, I am sincerely yours,

ROBERT T. LINCOLN.

Hon. W. H. Andrews, Chairman Republican State Committee, Philadelphia.

How They Did It.

If any of our readers are inclined to doubt whether newspaper advertising can be made to pay we would point to the success achieved by the manufacturers of the strong 5-A Horse Blankets.

A few years ago many horse blanket manufacturers reduced the quality of their goods to such an extent that it was almost impossible for a horse owner to tell when he bought a horse blanket whether it was strong or not. Many of our readers have doubtless, in the past, purchased such blankets and found to their great disgust that they would wear out in a few weeks.

The 5-A Horse Blanket manufacturers believed that people did not want to be fooled, and that owners of horse blankets if they knew how to tell the difference between a strong blanket and a weak one. Many years ago they decided to make their horse blankets unusually strong and give them the name 5-A trade mark on the inside of each blanket and no blanket is genuine without this trade mark. The 5-A trade mark is a guarantee that the horse blanket is strong and will stand rough usage.

The manufacturers of 5-A Horse Blankets have found honesty to be the best policy. Their blankets are known over the entire United States as well as they are known to our own readers, for they are advertised everywhere. Newspaper advertising, and the stand they have taken to make horse blankets that will wear well, have made the manufacturers of 5-A Horse Blankets the largest makers of these goods in the world. They own their own mills, have the very latest labor saving machinery, and make their blankets from the raw stock to the finished state and at prices to suit everybody.

Dear Henry, I think you must really afford to send me to the Springs this summer. I am growing so fat that I am ashamed of myself. I got weighed today and to think that I could ever weigh 250 pounds!

Where were you weighed? If it was on the scales in my coal yard you may be perfectly easy, for you don't weigh really more than 150.

About Men and Women.

Certainly women endure a great deal to be beautiful—some women.

Some women lace themselves until their waists are so small that you conclude their brains are situated there.

Some men have their shoulders padded, hoping to look like athletes, whereas they simply look like base imitations of men of weight.

Some women put rouge on in such thick layers that the impression is given that their intention was to paint the town red and they began on their own faces.

Some men will spend one hour parting their hair to conceal a bald spot which nature intends to be seen, and nature is always a long way, ahead of art.

Some women will wear an untidy boot and believe that their skirt will hide it; they never made a greater mistake in their lives.

Some men waste all their intelligence arranging a scarf and then wonder that the world does not appreciate.

Some women think that dowdiness and artistic effect are synonymous, and then are surprised that men call them guys.

Some men will love a women even if she wears her hair in curl papers, sleeps with cold cream all over her face, forgets that three buttons are gone off her boots, that her gloves are disreputable, and that her frock needs mending, but these men are very few and far between and are usually what the darkies call "lacking."

Ishler is Fond of Good Horses.

As to fondness for horses, on last Thursday, at the races at the Philipsburg Driving Park, one of the most prominent figures on the Grand Stand was Ishler, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, who appeared to be deeply interested in the success of a black trotter from Half Moon, and displayed far more excitement over the result than the writer ever saw Major Wolf show over anything. We will add, that Major Wolfe was not at the races. He was at his store attending to his business, which was of more moment to him than a horse trot. If elected, Major Wolfe would make a splendid officer. He is fearless, plucky and better than all, a gentleman in thought, word and deed.—Ledger.

A sea-serpent, 103 feet long, was seen to coil itself up in slippery folds on the coast of Florida last month. Three reliable persons saw this creature distinctly.

Reader, the above is a "yarn." If people would believe the following truthful statement as readily as they swallow sea-serpent stories, it would be the means of saving thousands of lives. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if taken in time and given a fair trial, will actually cure consumption of the lungs, which is really scrofulous disease. If this wonderful medicine does not do all we recommend, when taken as directed, we will cheerfully and promptly return all money paid for it. Can any offer be more generous or fair? No other medicine possesses sufficient power over that fatal malady—Consumption, to warrant its manufacturers in selling it under such trying conditions. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not only the most wonderful alterative, or blood-cleanser, known to medical science, but also possesses superior nutritive and tonic, or strength-giving properties, which assist the food to digest and become assimilated, thus building up both strength and flesh. For all cases of Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, accompanied with lingering coughs, it is absolutely unequaled as a remedy. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, and kindred affections, it surpasses all other medicines.

—The Harrisburg Call has turned the light on Ex-Governor Pattison's career

—Ten days from now there will be the usual number of fellows who "knew it all the time."

—Almost half the deer season gone already and thus far only one deer killed so fas as heard of.

—Walter Hamilton, a student at State College, is spending a few days at his home in Tyrone.

—The wise young man now layeth aside his pennies for to buy his best girl a nX-mas present.

—Sidewalks and pavements should be put in good repair, lest the ugly places cause falls and injury.

—The new residence of Mr. F. C. Montgomery on East Linn street is progressing very rapidly.

—The family of Mr. Gerrity returned from Worcester, Mass., and will now reside in Bellefonte.

—On the Allegheny mountains out from Altoona about three inches of snow fell on Monday night.

—Doesn't that large porch and that new roof on Colonel Spangler's house give it a distingue appearance.

—If you haven't got the steam heat or all your stoves fixed up you are liable to get cold this kind of weather.

—Governor Pattison is trying to squelch his opponents and shield himself by entering suit for libel. No go that.

—The New York Herald has begun the publication of the Charity fund appropriation of Johnstown. Look out for squalls.

—There are extensive improvements being made in the front part of the store room of F. P. Blair & Co., which, when completed, will add greatly to the appearance of that corner.,

—General D. H. Hastings is sick at the Stratford hotel in Philadelphia. He was threatened with pneumonia but his friends are now hopeful of no such serious termination.

—Cards of invitation are now being sent out for the eighth annual Hollow E'en ball of Bellefonte Assembly, No. 2333, Knights of Labor, which same will be held in Armory Hall on next Friday evening, October 31st, 1890.

—Only a little over one week more o this terrible suspense and then the politician will be free. Those that will be elected will be up,' way up, while the defeated ones will be down flatter 'an a pan-cake.

—Kittie Rhoades, supported by a very strong company, opens a week's engagement at the opera house this evening, in that new and startling comedy, "The Planter's Wife." Miss Rhoades enjoys an enviable reputation.

—The W. C. T. U. throughont the United States are now offering up prayers that Nebraska may vote for no license. On the fourth of next November the citizens of that western State will deposit their little ballots which will tell the tale.

—Nothing is being heard these days of the man that shot and killed Waterhouse. Isn't it soon time for that enterprising reporter who interviewed the man a couple times to go and get some more information for the pnblic.

—There is an old saying that "music hath charms, etc.," but the chorus that the boys" will sing on the night of the fourth of November will not "soothe the raging tempest" in the breasts of Pattison and the entire democratic ticket.

—Some of Bellefonte's young men are becomming badly broken up over some of the pretty actresses that appear in Bellefonte; only one thing yet is lacking—they don't know when they are single or when they are married. Look t their teeth, boys.

—A corespondent writes us: "An Indian doctor claiming Altoona as his place of residence, is travelling through this end of Huntingdon county claiming to cure all diseases, some for $5, others for $10, and so on; agreeing to return once each week for six weeks, when the cure will be effected; but he never returns. He wears long hair, high silk hat and a black suit much faded. He is a smooth and rapid talker."

WHY IT WAS SUPPRESSED.

It Was Against the Law to Allow it to go Through.

Considerable discussion has been going on about why the Centre Democrat was thrown out of the postoffice this week and not allowed to be sent through the mails until a supplement it contained was removed, and thus far none ascribe the real cause or reason for its being suppressed. Some think, and even say, it was because of party feeling, ome because of feeling for Quay, but the true reason was because it was against the law. The supplement law is as follows and comes under Sec. 338 of the Postal Laws and is headed "Rules for determining character of supplements. Rule 1 is as follows:

Rule 1.—A publication entirely distinct from and independent of the regular issue, but complete in itself, and in nowise connected with or germane to the regular issue, cannot be adopted as a supplement.

Rule 8.—Supplements must in all cases bear the name of the paper with which they are folded, and if they contain advertisements, the number and date corresponding to the regular issue.

Now the supplement that the Centre Democrat tried to run through was one headed "New York World," and dated September 20th. Anyone that has any knowledge of law can at once see that it was an open and flagrant violation and that Mr. Fiedler would have violated his oath of office to have allowed them to go through, Further than that, when he notified Mr. Kurtz that the supplements would have to be removed before they could go through the mails, he also told him that he would not need to take them away to do it, but that if he would bring his force down they would all (meaning postoffice employes) turn in and help him and then the paper would not be delayed, This Mr. Kurtz refused to do, but took the edition back to his office and removed the supplement.

The above is a true version of the case.

Stray Political Shots.

It is about as safe to bet on the weather as on the election. It's safer not to bet at all, however.

The practical politicians evidently believe in unlimited reciprocity.

Politicians out in Wisconsin are having a Peck of trouble.

If you have fully made up your mind how to vote what's the use of attending political meetings.

Grever Cleveland is one of the heaviest dead politicians on record. He weighs about 300 pounds.

Barclay can bark and bite, too. That's more than can be said of Pattison.

Thieves and liars are born, not made. So are politicians.

If bad men are elected to office the goody goody citizen should not squirm. The bosses will choose their tools just so long as the people will let them.

Some of those men on the stump now will be up a tree next month.

It is an easy matter for the State Chairman of either party to raise a fund of fifty thousand now. But we'll bet a fiver that the fellow that gets beaten can't raise enough to get a glass of beer the morning after the election.

While decrying the McKinley tariff the Democratic election boards of the South will be gratified to know that shot guns of commen quality retain the old rate of duty.

Claims $6,000.

Judge Mayer will have a case of somewhat more than ordinary interest before him at the next term of the court in Elk county, as we learn from one of the papers of that section that Mrs. Harry Wilson has brought action against Robert Cochran, of Weedville, claiming damages to the extent of $6,000 for the illegal selling of liquor to her husband, Harry Wilson, on the 20th day of August, as well as a previous time, causing him on the last mentioned date to become intoxicated by reason of which he wandered on the A. V. railroad track and was struck by a train of cars and permanently crippled and disabled. Mr. Wilson is now under treatment in a hospital. The family consists of three children. A. H. Cole is the attorney for the plaintiff.

The Bellefonte Postmaster Right.

On Monday Mr. Fiedler received a letter from the postoffice department in Washington relative to the suppression of the Centre Democrat supplement last, week, which clearly proves Mr. Fiedler's action to have been legal and right, as the following extract from the letter will show:

"It is understood, of course, that every publisher so issuing this matter shall print on it the name of his paper, as required by the 8th 'paragraph of section 338 of the Postal Regulations as modified by the Postal Guide of 1890.'

What Bellefonte Does.

Bellefonte furnishes more pretty girls and women than any other town in the world.

It furnishes more great men of all kinds tnan any other known or unknown place.

It does the right thing by those who settle within its borders in the way of taxation, etc.

It furnishes more sensational news of all kinds to the outside world than any other town of its size in the State.

It does more genuine progressing in every way than a traveller could find anywhere else in a month's travel.

In fact it does everything but keep the cattle off the streets.

Why He Was Expelled.

Dispatches in Saturday's papers announced the expelling of cadet Andrew Jackson Cruse, from the naval academy at Annapolis., but did not give the full reason, It appears that there had been a case of hazing done, and the military officials were trying to get at the bottom of the facts, It was proven that Andrew was in the room at the time the mischief was done, and the military officials were trying to get at the bottom of the facts, It was proven that Andrew was in the the room at the time the mischief was done although he had nothing whatever to do with it. According to military rules a cadet is bound to tell or be expelled. Cadet Cruse was asked to tell but refused. He was given from Thursday morning to Monday evening in which to decide what he would do and when on being asked at the expiration of the set time and he again refused, there was no other remedy but to expell. The military officer in command also said that there was no chance for a reinstatement as the first question that would be asked at the examination would be 'Who did the hazing?'

It is not our intention to decry the action of cadet Cruse or condone it. His action was a choice between a life situation or telling on his classmates. On the one hand it was hard to be expelled; while on the other had he told on his comrades his life at the Academy in the future would have been a very trying one. His classmates would have ostracised him. All the fault lay with his class, and shame on the culprits who will guiltily stand by and see an innocent comrade expelled for their own shortcomings.

He Want's to Trade Off Rupp.

W. Gaylor Morrison is now becoming desperate. He has worked faithfully and well but thus far he fails to see any chance for his election. He is now becoming desperate and, in his mad desire to be elected, he is now even trying to barter John Rupp, the only good man the democrats have on their ticket. We know whereof we speak when we say that Morrison has even gone so far as to offer to deliver them votes for a vote for himself.

Will not only the voters of Centre Co., but will the democratic party stand this? Will they put in their best licks for a man who is conspiring to defeat part of their ticket? Will John Rupp give his earnest support to the man who is doing his level best to defeat him by trading him off for votes for himself? Morrison has all along been known to be tricky. It was just such work that defeated him three years ago and it is the result of that and the work that he is now doing that is going to defeat him next Tuesday.

Is it not one of the meanest and lowest political tricks possible to trade off a fellow candidate? And what does the public in general think of a man who would try to bargain to do that? Is he the man they wan't to put into an office of trust and responsibility? Well, we guess not; and when the votes are all counted next Tuesday night Morrison will guess not, too, The people now want honest, upright men in office and the only way to get them there is to vote the whole republican ticket. Come out early and vote for John F. Harter for Recorder.

Two Deaths.

Mr. David Crotty, of this place, died in the Altoona hospital on Saturday night about eleven o'clock, of an affection of the stomach. Deceased was well known in this place, having been born and raised near here, also spent the most of his life in Bellefonte. He was apparently a stout, hearty man, of large stature and weighed over 200 pounds. He was never sick until the 4th of last July when he was taken ill and since that time has continued to grow worse until his death on Saturday night.

Mr. Crotty was 28 years old, he having been born on June 14th, 1862. Five sisters and two brothers survive him, The funeral occurred on Tuesday morning at 10.30 at the Catholic church in this place.

Miss Annie Gerrity died at the home of her parents in Worcester, Mass., on Friday night, Mr. Gerrity formerly lived in Bellefonte until about a year ago when he with his family moved to Massachusetts where they have since resided. The cause of Miss Annie's death was consumption. The remains were brought to Bellefonte Monday, the family accompanying them.

Apple Blossoms at Eagleville,

Mr. John J. Shaffer, the popular insurance man, returned last evening from a trip up the Bald Eagle Valley and brought with him a handsome bouquet of apple blossoms which he left at this office. The blossoms were taken from a tree on the premises of David Bumgardner near Eagleville, which is now full of blossoms.—Lock Haven Express.

—Clinton county Commissioners are getting themselves into trouble. They are blamed with conniving a steal of some thirty thousand dollars. E. T. Gallagher is somewhat mixed up in it oo.

An "Original Package" Question Quickly Decided.

In the early morning, one day recently, a stout built young man passed under the windows of this office bearing a heavy package in the form of a well filled sack of something, like pots, kettles or cabbage heads, swung over his shoulder. The bearer was a dark skinned, athletic person and our first impression was that he was a lone Hungarian carrying some cooking utensils, or perhaps something to eat. On reaching the end of the iron bridge he was accosted by another individual who was crossing the street at a right angle.

The heavy laden young representative of Africa turned quickly to see who was in pursuit when his cumbrous package suddenly flopped from his shoulder and fell upon the pavement with a loud crash of breaking glass. A rush of liquid gushed out from the sack and flowed over the pavement.

The young man looked at it in consternation, picked up the sack but the fluid still poured out, when he looked up and down in surprise and disgust, threw the sack and broken contents into Spring creek and then hastened out of sight.

Two or three sympathetic politicians and a couple of boys were on the spot instantly trying with matches to see if the stuff would burn, and it did burn well. but several gallons of the "original package" was decided in less time than Judge Fuller made his famous decision. Selah.

The Right Man.

UNIONVILLE, PA., Oct. 28, '90.

MR. EDITOR:—

Will you kindly give me space in your valuable paper to say a word in favor of our candidate for Register, George W. Fisher, of Half Moon township. I have known Mr. Fisher for a number of years, he having been a resident of our township at one time, during which he taught school in our district. I, at that time was a young man, and attended the school taught by him. In his school work he was as he has ever been since, an earnest worker, and there are many in our community who will testify to the same. During the time he spent in our township Mr Fisher not only gained the respect of all our citizens but established a reputation which live o to-day in our midst, and to which we will testify on election day by our ballot. Mr. Fisher deserves the office. Why? Because he is as capable of filling it as any man in the county; and again because he is a cripple and, consequently, to a certain extent, incapable of performing manual labor. Fellow voters, will we not rise in our might and work and vote for one whom we know to be the soul of honor and against whom not one dishonorable act can be brought.

Yours for his election,
JNO. C. STERR.

Transfers of Real Estate.

Following are the transfers of real estate made in Centre county during the past year and entered on record at the Recorder's office, Bellefonte, Pa.:

Geo. E. Ishler, et al, to Maggie Love lot of ground in Potter township,

Rachael M. Stine, et al, to Phœbe Hite, lot of ground in Spring township.

Wm. Adams, et ux, to Daniel France, lot of ground in Worth township.

Daniel Frantz, et ux, to John Thomas, lot of ground in Worth township.

James M. Smith's exr's, to George C. Grazier, lot of ground in Ferguson township.

Adam Moyer, Jr., et ux, to H. S. Stuart, lot of ground in Philipsburg.

E. C. Humes, to Sadie Baney, lot of ground in Bellefonte.

George M. Zeigler, et ux, to John Callahan, lot of ground in Rush township.

Clarinda C. Callahan, et al, to Geo. M. Zeigler, lot of ground in Rush township.

W. S. Sellers to Edward Sellers, lot of ground in College township.

Robert Cooke, Jr., Sheriff, to James G. Kline, lot of ground in Huston township.

Same to Henry Beck, adm'r, lot of ground in Liberty township.

Things to Remember Next Tuesday.

Republicans should remember that they can vote whether registered or not, if they have lived in the district sixty days prior to the election, and can produce a citizen to vouch to that fact.

Would you have for Governor a man who would consign soldiers to the potters field? Mr. Pattison did this by his veto.

Republicans, vote early on Tuesday next. This makes the work of the active men easier, and enables them to systemize it as the hours wane.

Would you have for Governor a man who would refuse hospitals for injured miners? Mr. Pattison did this by his veto.

A vote for the whole Republican ticket is a vote for measures and principles and not for persons. This is the proper vote.

That when Mr. Pattison said there was more State tax returned during his term than during Beaver's he didn't know what he was saying or else he plainly lied, as the books show over $8,000,000 in the latter's favor.

—On and after November first the telephone company will establish a new system of "calls." It will be the same as now in use in Williamsport and large cities, to call by numbers instead of name. Cards are now being sent out on which is a complete list of all the patrons of the Bellefonte exchange and opposite the name of each person is their number. It is believed that the adoption of this system will greatly facilitate the business in the telephone exchange.

David Crotty's Death.

We clip the following from the Altoona Tribune: David Crotty, of Bellefonte, was admitted to the hospital on the 2nd of September last to receive treatment for stomach troubles. He had been in failing health for some time previous to his admission, having been a patient at one of the Philadelphia hospitals. His case baffled the skill of the best physicians of that city. His condition was very serious when he was admitted here, and the attending physicians had very little hope of restoring him to health. His health remained unchanged until about three weeks ago when he commenced to sink, and despite the constant attendance of medical skill and attentive nursing he became rapidly worse and at 11 o'clock Saturday night died in great agony. Throughout his long illness he bore his sufferings in patience and always was hopeful of recovering. Just previous to his death Father McKenna, of St John's, administered the last rites of the church.

Deceased was born at Boiling Springs, near Bellefonte, 28 years ago, and was single. He is survived by four sisters—Mrs. Joseph Cedar, Mrs. Robert Gilmore, Mrs. Martin Cooney and Mrs. Corn Garman, all of Bellefonte, and two brothers—James and Michael Crotty, of Boiling Springs, Centre county. The remains were given in charge of Undertaker B. J. Lynch and prepared for burial. The funeral will take place at Bellefonte.

Personal Pencilings.

Sheriff Cooke was in Philipsburg on Tuesday.

Rev. J. A. Woodcock, of Williamsport, is in town to-day.

Mrs. J. C. Beal, who visited in Tyrone for a couple weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. Will Cowdrick, and little girl, of Johnstown, Pa., are visiting friends in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Frank Bassett departed on Wednesday for Jersey City where she will visit friends for a few weeks.

Mr. Jacob Thomas, who was at home a few days ago, has again gone to Middleton; N. J., where he is engaged in settling up his son's estate.

Mrs. Dayton and Mrs. Stephenson, two charming Williamsport ladies, are visiting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Ardell on East Linn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Issac Maitland, of Williamsport, are now in Bellefonte and attended the performance at the opera house on Friday night.

TETTER AND BOILS.

For years I was afflicted with an aggravated case of Tetter. I tried lotions, salves, soaps, and other outward applications, without any beneficial results. In addition to the Tetter, Boils commenced breaking out all over my body, causing me so much pain that I had to quit work and go to bed. I then decided that I had started wrong, and instead of using external treatment I ought to go to the seat of the disease and purify my blood, as it was obviously bad blood that caused both the Tetter and the Boils. I took several blood purifiers without any good effects. About the time my case was declared incurable I commenced taking S. S. S. In a few weeks the Tetter was cured, and one by one the Boils disappeared, until I was entirely and permanently cured. This was three years ago, and since then I have been free from any skin eruptions. My skin is now, and has been for three years, as smooth as any ones. S. S. S. not only cured me of the Tetter and Boils, but also restored my appetite and general health, causing me to increase in weight and improve in every way.

That Prehistoric Fort.

A dispatch from Altoona says: A party headed by J. W. Scott, the well-known geologist, has just returned from a trip to Rush township, Centre county, to see the famous prehistoric fortifications supposed to exist there. The excursionists report a find far beyond their expectations.

Sawyer Ridge is about a mile in length, The west side is guarded by the deep valley of the Moshannon creek. The north end is flanked by Mountain branch and the south end protected by Pine run, while the front of the fortified position looks out over a broad white oak flat. In it lies the old fortification. It was mentioned in the notes of Daniel Turner, who surveyed that country in 1793. From that date it was not known until 1866, when the old ruins were discovered by J. W. Scott while making a geological survey of the Moshannon region in Centre county.

On the north point, after wading through a wilderness of briars, the party found what is called Picket Rock. Eastward, or rather to the south, they came upon a series of ill-looking walls of rock. Searching near the centre of this immense line of fortifications, the party came to the main parapet, with its embrasures and all the fixtures that constitute a modern fortress.

In front were found altars built of stone. These were simply gigantic and equaled only by the big rocks in the main line of works. The fortress is made of Mahoning sandstone, and it must have been constructed thousands of years ago. It is a field for the archæologists, and when its inner mysteries are brought to light, perhaps much may be added to the meager information now possessed in regard to the prehistoric races of America.

The trip has other interesting features. Panther Den, about two miles from the fortress, is a place of unusual interest. Bears, panthers, wild cats and foxes occupy the den, or cave, in common. The great "natural lick" is just below the right flank of the ridge, and the ruins of the old cabin of Dan Turner may be seen at the north end of the hill. It is adorned with wild roses and rhododendrons, planted in the wilderness by Mrs. Turner.

It requires three days to make the journey, but a fierce storm was encountered, which delayed the party considerably.

Will Represent the People.

Guyer Mattern should be elected to the legislature from Centre county by all means. He is the friend of the laboring man, in fact he is right with them body and soul, and all his energy in the legislative body would be directly in their behalf. If the voters of Centre county desire to put a man in Harrisburg who will work for them; if they desire to send a man who will give honest legislation and cannot be bought; if they would have a man there who at all times would attend to his business and not lay around the barroom and beer saloon, then let them support Guyer Mattern and Charles Fryberger for the legislature.

Our Scribbler Think's.

That the news gatherer will be glad when the election is over.

That there are few resting places on the road to success.

That apples are selling at extortionate prices in this city.

That sports are particular about the angle of their hats and heads.

That a business not worth advertising is hardly worth looking after.

That some are in sympathy with every varying mood of Nature.

That rapid transit is of more importance to a town than en aesthetic appearance.

That the roller craze has broken out in Europe and again threatens this country.

That the electric lighting business of this country employs a capital of $3,000,000,000.
